

Supply—Labour

those different items we will move to go into supply, post office if the minister is here or, in his absence, justice.

Motion agreed to and the house adjourned at 6.10 p.m.

[The following items were passed in committee of supply]:

DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR

142. Departmental administration, $735,337.

143. Annuities Act, $785,871.

144. Fair wages, conciliation, industrial relations, industrial disputes investigations, including the administration of legislation relating thereto, and for activities re promotion of co-operation in industry between labour and management, $308,617.

145. Canada labour relations board—formerly included in demobilization and reconversion as the wartime labour relations board, $17,500.

146. International labour conferences, $58,205.

147. Labour Gazette and other publications authorized by Labour Department Act, $103,810.

Vocational Training Co-ordination Act, 1942—

148. Administration, $44,100.

149. Expenditures for vocational training under the Vocational Training Co-ordination Act, 1942, and agreements between the dominion and provinces approved by the governor in council, including projects for training of persons to fit them for gainful employment, youth training, apprenticeship training, vocational training at secondary school level, foremanship and supervisory training and for training of members of His Majesty's forces and other persons to fit them for skilled armed service occupations and to authorize the Minister of Labour to enter into an agreement with any province with the approval of the governor in council for such training, as well as to provide for undischarged commitments of previous years, $3,762,000.

150. To provide for the effective organization and use of agricultural manpower, including recruiting, transporting and placing workers on farms and related industries and assistance to the provinces pursuant to agreements that may be entered into by the Minister of Labour with the provinces and approved by the governor in council—formerly included in demobilization and reconversion, $360,000.

Demobilization and reconversion—

151. To provide for expenses relating to placement of labour planning; co-ordination of stevedoring, including authority to continue the regional boards known as "advisory boards labour department" to act in an advisory capacity to the Minister of Labour for the co-ordination of the work of the various divisions of the Department of Labour and the immigration branch of the Department of Mines and Resources, $127,420.

152. Technical personnel division—administration (formerly bureau of technical personnel and placement of university graduates), $38,640.

153. Vocational training for discharged members of Canada's armed forces; payments to the provinces for capital expenditure for vocational schools, buildings and equipment; and to provide for dominion contributions towards replacement by a province or municipality of machinery used in war emergency training; including undischarged commitments of previous years, $3,515,000.

Wartime labour relations board—now included in ordinary estimates.

154. To provide the necessary financial requirements to complete activities for the relocation, maintenance and welfare of persons of the Japanese race in Canada and to carry out the provisions of agreements entered into with the provinces in reference to the foregoing and to continue the appointments of necessary temporary assistance required in administering the project, $220,350.

To provide for the effective organization and use of agricultural manpower, including recruiting, transporting and placing workers on farms and related industries and assistance to the provinces pursuant to agreements that may be entered into by the Minister of Labour with the provinces and approved by the governor in council—now included in ordinary estimates.

155. To provide for payment to the national film board for educational films for exhibition, $24,000.

156. To provide for expenses that may be incurred in the arranging for and the movement of workers from outside Canada to work on farms and other essential industry in Canada when Canadian labour is not available to meet the need; including costs connected with the supervision and welfare of persons already immigrated to Canada under former authorized labour movements and administrative expenses connected therewith, $895,675.

B—Unemployment Insurance Act, 1940—

157. Administration, including expenditures incurred in connection with the activities of the national employment service as delegated by the Minister of Labour in accordance with section 88 of the act, $19,645,631.

158. Government's contribution to the unemployment insurance fund, $18,750,000.

Demobilization and reconversion—

159. To provide for the transfer of labour to and from places where employment is available in agriculture and industry and expenses incidental thereto, $225,000.

A—Department—

678. Fair wages, conciliation, industrial relations, industrial disputes investigations, including the administration of legislation relating thereto, and for activities re promotion of co-operation in industry between labour and management—further amount required, $21,000.

B—Unemployment Insurance Act, 1940—

679. Administration, including expenditures incurred in connection with the activities of the national employment service as delegated by the Minister of Labour in accordance with section 88 of the act—further amount required, $182,720.

680. Government's contribution to the unemployment insurance fund—further amount required, $250,000.

681. To authorize and provide for payment of unemployment assistance to residents of Newfoundland who have been employed in employment that would have been insurable employment within the meaning of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1940, if it had been employment in Canada, or who have been employed in insurable employment within the meaning of the said act, for at least thirty per cent of the working days within the period of three months preceding their loss of employment or thirty per cent of the working days within the period since the date of union, whichever period is the longer, and who lose their employment within six months prior to the date of union and are still unemployed at that date, or who lose their employment within a two-year period after that date, such assistance to be payable during a period of six months from the