

Adjournment Debate

Metropolitan Toronto, and I trust that we will hear those answers from the Parliamentary Secretary tonight.

Mr. Doug Lewis (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): Mr. Speaker, I appreciate my hon. colleague's remarks. I would like to take notice of his comments. Six p.m. came rather sooner than we had expected this evening and, unfortunately, the Parliamentary Secretary could not be here at this time. However, we will definitely take notice of the remarks and give an answer back to my colleague.

In view of the fact that our colleagues opposite who had given notice that they wanted to ask a question on the Adjournment Debate are not here, although the Parliamentary Secretary is here to answer one of the questions, I suggest that we will co-operate with the Table in rescheduling tonight's Adjournment Debate.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: I thank the Hon. Parliamentary Secretary.

The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, the House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 11 a.m., pursuant to Standing Order 3(1).

The House adjourned at 5.48 p.m.
