

At 10:30 a. m. the speaker introduced a resolution that the American Medical Association should have a department of research in the field of the prevention of disease.

After a discussion of the resolution the speaker announced that the American Medical Association had agreed to support the resolution.

At 11:30 a. m. the speaker introduced a resolution that the American Medical Association should have a department of research in the field of the prevention of disease.

REPORTS

The following reports were presented:

1. Report of the Committee on the Prevention of Disease.

2. Report of the Committee on the Education of the Public.

The following reports were presented:

1. Report of the Committee on the Prevention of Disease.

2. Report of the Committee on the Education of the Public.

The following reports were presented:

1. Report of the Committee on the Prevention of Disease.

2. Report of the Committee on the Education of the Public.

The following reports were presented:

1. Report of the Committee on the Prevention of Disease.

2. Report of the Committee on the Education of the Public.

The following reports were presented:

1. Report of the Committee on the Prevention of Disease.

2. Report of the Committee on the Education of the Public.

The following reports were presented:

1. Report of the Committee on the Prevention of Disease.

2. Report of the Committee on the Education of the Public.

The following reports were presented:

1. Report of the Committee on the Prevention of Disease.

2. Report of the Committee on the Education of the Public.

The following reports were presented:

1. Report of the Committee on the Prevention of Disease.

2. Report of the Committee on the Education of the Public.

The following reports were presented:

1. Report of the Committee on the Prevention of Disease.

2. Report of the Committee on the Education of the Public.

The following reports were presented:

1. Report of the Committee on the Prevention of Disease.

2. Report of the Committee on the Education of the Public.