Ottawa, 17th May, 1920.

My dear Wrong.-

I appreciate very much indeed your letter of the 16th instant, in which you are kind enough to congratulate me on my acceptance of the Principalship of McGill University.

Naturally, I accepted the position with every diffidence, knowing full well my limitations from an academic point of view; yet I look forward to the work in Montreal with a great interest and pleasure. I believe it offers opportunities for useful service to Canada, and I hope that my direction of affairs at McGill will merit the approval of my friends.

I appreciate very much your good wishes, and your assurance that I may rely on your assistance and advice.

With all good wishes,

I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

General,
Inspector-General & Military Counsellor.
