

A rather national colleges have been reorganized and consolidated into one great National University. I am again teaching in this reorganized institution.

While at Hankow,
you asked me to look for a Chinese teacher in Chinese literature and philosophy. So far I have not yet been able to locate a suitable man.
For oftentimes one may be good in Chinese literature
and philosophy,