OTTAWA. June 21 .- The first meeting of the Connaught Jockey Club came to a successful conclusion with the running of Saturday's card. A feature of the closing day was the victory of Adolante on whose chances 60 to 1 could be had. Adolante was 20 to 1 to place and 8 to 1 to show. Adolante led from barrier to the wire, Fairy Godmother taking second, and with the favorite, Hedge Rose, third. The meet closed in magnificent weather, and the largest crowd of the week. The Merchants' Selling Stake, $1500, went to Towton Field, at 4 to 1. Seagram's Rustling was beaten in the first race by Havrock, a cast-off from the Waterloo stable. Montreal and Ottawa men backed Henry Hutchison, a new arrival, in the fifth race and their horse was never a contender. Bat Masterson and Abdon were the only favorites to win.
