Commercial Summary.

ON 11th that a branch of the Bank of Paris is to be established in this Province.

During the last ten months Nova Scotia and New Brunswick have exported to Great Britain no fewer than 2,400 head of cattle.

It is reported that a large "find" of asbestos on the Eastern Townships Bank lands, Que., has been discovered, and that it may likely be worked by a wealthy company.

It is alleged that the New Brunswick Anthracite Co., who own mining property at Lepreau, is insolvent, and application has been made to the Equity Court of New Brunswick to wind up its affairs.

The Royal Insurance Company, of England, is demolishing its present premises on Yonge and Wellington streets, Toronto, with the object of erecting a more elegant and commodious building on the same site.

The roor and shoe and leather business at Annapolis, N.S., appears to be almost monopolized by one man, who combines tanning, manufacturing, importing, and retailing, besides supplying the fishermen in Digby Co., in exchange for fish which he sells again to West India dealers.
