Dr. Larrick moved up stoutly on the outside entering the stretch. He finished gamely under a hard drive and nosed Baox Bay out in the last stride. The latter was used up racing with The Widow Moon in the first half and weakened near the end. Pardner came from last place in the stretch run and was a bang-up third. He was rapidly overhauling the leaders at the end, and was only beaten half a length for all the money. The Widow Moon quit. Deposit went a good half, then tired. Record could never get up.
