ABBREVIATIONS

A full explanation of the abbreviations for the various law reports will be found at the beginning of each volume of Lord Halsbury's Laws of England, and also in some publishers' catalogues. Of text-books the following will be cited by the authors' names only:

Blackstone, Commentaries on the Laws of England (1765).

Kyd, Law of Corporations (1793).

Grant, Law of Corporations (1850).

Carr, Law of Corporations (1905).

In Appendix I the ordinary canon law abbreviations are used:

X: the Decretals of Gregory IX in five books.

VI: the Sext, or book of the Decretals of Boniface VIII.
