

That a corresponding degree of success will attend the present one, if an opportunity be afforded for it, there can be no reasonable doubts entertained. It will only require judicious measures on the part of the Government, for the general arrangement of the transfer and location of the emigrants; and as far as the principle of estimate can be applied to any public undertaking of this nature, a reference to Appendix A. will demonstrate, that the expense of the necessary measures will be covered by the money proposed to be advanced, and with every consideration for the comfort and interests of the emigrant, which is fairly compatible with his situation as a pauper in his own country, and which country, by the terms of the proposition, he himself must be desirous of leaving. *

The financial part of this proposed measure is of the most simple nature; the issuing of terminable annuities, to be purchased at the market price, according to their respective periods, and the rate per cent.

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt may be authorised, for example, (if no more eligible mode can be suggested
