

Address to

his Pro-
Govern-

His ad-

It is the

press his ability of

me, at all

at course

entirely

point upon

st agree,

e attach-

a connec-

he found

opinions

enance of the real

was ap-

rage and

orous and

ntry from

ot in con-

d, and its

measures

n of good

t; he was

ong delu-

ding their

Constitu-

advancing

ncis Head

ng repre-

ved them.

a political

Province,

nessed in

r Francis

political

hilated.—

led us the

se impor-

cter: from

en prefer-

o feeling

the good

not hes-

cter, and

difference

question,

hich previ-

oval, is to

the moment

ause is to

I have too

and gener-

Upper Ca-

of the at-

pon them,

and I en-

will resist

e, to draw

can be pro-

finite evil,

nd repose,

fect estab-

rvant,

RMAN.