CITY FIRE LIMITS

End Residents Enter Protest Against a Building.

Why don't you keep consistently to our bylaw? Every time a goodfellow comes before you to his case you change your ind in his favor. What you would to if two lovely women came upon the scene heaven only knows." This was Ald. Birdsall's rejoinder to those members of the property com. fittee at yesterday's meeting who avored the application of the Canaian Oil Companies, Ltd., to transfer gasoline supply station from the their gasoline supply station from the corner of St. Clair avenue and Vaughan road two blocks up to Atlas and St. Clair. The whole question was said to revolve around the issue of whether the company was entitled to have a station in the vicinity at all in view of the fact that council recently passed a bylaw refusing the crection of any such places costing less than $10,000. This one cost in the neighborhood of $2000, but had been built before the bylaw came into effect. The company contended that the neighbor the bylaw came into effect. The company contended that it was paying a high license fee. Ald. Ball expressed the opinion that before anything was decided upon in the matter the owner of the property upon which the proposed supply station was to be built should be consulted. Ald. Beamish favored the proposal. The final vote defeated the resolution in its favor by 8 to 6. Change in Fire Limits.

Another important point brought up was that of fire limits, a factor which involved the validity of constructing frame houses in the Broadview-Gerrard district of the city. Ald. F. M. Johnston, on behalf of citizens of that district, protested with the mentanance of such a citizens of that district, protested against the maintenance of such a building, 357 Broadview avenue, as being liable to lower the general Morale!

Given at Convocation British Staff Officer Defines It-McMaster University convocation will How Y.M.C.A. Enhances This be held this evening in Walmer road Baptist Church. This will be the first Great Factor of Victory

> "IS VICTORY always on the side of the biggest battalions?" was asked of a British staff officer, as recorded by Dr. John R. Mott in the "Ladies Home Journal."

"It is and it isn't," he replied. "There's something else. You cannot chart it, you cannot weigh it, you cannot express it in any military figures. But Napoleon knew what it was, and he called it 'morale.'

How Morale Is Created

'I cannot define for you exactly what morale is, but I can tell you it comes in many different ways. I have known morale to be found in a cup of hot coffee. That sounds une romantic. But think what that means to a man who has had ten hours consecutive shelling.

"I have seen morale created by a man's taking a big risk; I have seen it sustained by a man's merely writing a letter home just before he went into action. You can describe morale," he continued, "in a score of ways, little and big.

"It may come from faith in a future life or from the thought that one is protecting the loved ones at home. But if you want an easy and short definition of morale, you will find a good one in the four letters Y. M.C. A."

Strengthening Morale

And he took his questioner to the window and shewed him men trooping into a Y. M.C. A. hut.

"Those are men," he said, "who will be going up to the front line to-morrow. Some of them will be playing games, others will be writing home, others will be attending divine service, but each in his own way will find a strengthening of his morale in the comradeship of his fellows be-neath the symbol of the Red Triangle and the inspiration for which it stands.

Y. M. C. A. Playing Big Part

"All this is a thing which I cannot show on my charts. But it is also a thing which is going to turn the balance in our favor. Go back and tell the people at home that a dry soldier, concerned alone with military calculations, believes that the Y.M.C.A. is playing a far bigger part in winning the war than any mere civilian can recognize.

"I do not speak to you as a philanthropist. That is not my job. But I want to see the end of this horrible business, and if a soldier's words have any weight, tell those at home to help the Y.M.C.A. to carry on its

R. had failed to properly account for $900,000 for the retirement of equipment from July 1, 1908, to June 13, 1917, but he could not explain the reason for this failure to differentiate between capital accounts and operating expenses. It showed that if the C. N. R. had adopted the system of renewing the equipment from time to time the company was behind with its renewals.

M. H. Macleod, chief engineer and manager of the C. N. R. western lines, gave information concerning the vari-ous curves, and stated that in the mountains a ten degree curve was common, but added that slow orders were not necessarily enforced on these curves, and in fact the rate of speed on a ten degree curve was 35 miles per hour. He did not agree with the statement made by A. T. Kerr, engineer of the Dominion Railway Board for British Columbia and Alberta, curves in addition to tie rails. Dealing with the matter of ballast he said the company had spent between Sas-katoon and Calgary the sum of $1,530 per mile of track in ballasting.

Nelles, stated that in 1910 the North Saskatchewan Land Co, had bought from the C.N.R. 125,000 acres and paid $10 an acre for the first 25,000 acres, $11 for 35,000 to 50,000 acres and $12 for 75,000 acres, and during the past eight years land had gon up $8 to $10 per acre.

A GREAT RESERVE.

The Algonquin Park of Ontario is easily accessible by the Grand Trunk Railway from all the principal centres. It is about two hundred miles tres. It is about two hundred miles north of Toronto, and may be reached also through Ottawa, being about one hundred and seventy miles west of the Capital City. There are more than fifteen hundred lakes and rivers in the Park, and to the excellence of the fishing there is undisputed testimony. Fish caught in the waters of the reserve have won each year many the reserve have won each year many of the national competitions open to the anglers of the continent. While the Park makes an especially strong appeal to the fisherman and canoeist, it is a vacation territory where each member of the family may find healthful recreation in the great out-of-doors. Good hotels. Illustrated descriptive literature and all particulars may be had on application to any Grand Trunk Agent, or to C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.
