ZULU KID PICKED TO MEET WILDE AT WINDSOR

Bad News Ebor Could Not Make Weight—Kid Stayed 11 Rounds With Wilde in England.

WINDSOR, March 28.—The Detroit News says: Young Zulu Kid, now making his home in this city, has been signed to meet Jimmy Wilde, flyweight champion of the world, at Windsor April 12. Zulu Kid is to make 116 pounds ring-side for Wilde. The latter is to receive $7,000 guarantee, while the Zulu Kid is to be given $2,500, with a percentage on the motion picture royalties. The bout will be staged by the Army and Navy Veterans of Canada at the Windsor armory, which will seat 4,000 people. Wilde and Zulu Kid met in England in 1916, when the latter was 13 years old. The bout went 11 rounds. This will be Wilde's only appearance in Canada, according to an agreement with the promoters of the match. "Bad News" Ebor, Canadian bantam-weight champion, was signed to meet Wilde, but had to be cancelled, as he could not make the weight demanded by Wilde. Zulu Kid is able to make 112 pounds ring-side. He fought a draw with Frankie Mason three weeks before Mason met Wilde. The Wilde-Zulu Kid bout is scheduled to go 10 rounds. Billy Hooks is to referee.

Woodstock Protest in John Whyte Series Thrown Out

Guelph Protest Over Technicality Referred to Mel Brock of This City For Decision.

STRATFORD, March 27.—Representatives of Woodstock, Guelph and Stratford Collegiate girls' basketball teams met here this morning to consider the protest entered by Woodstock and Guelph in the John Whyte Cup basketball series. The Woodstock protest was not allowed. The protest of Guelph was discussed and it was decided to refer the protest to the referee, Mel Brock of London. The question is whether 40 seconds' cessation of play is sufficient ground for protest. Guelph is protesting that the timekeeper did not allow sufficient time for stoppage of play, and that the final period of play here did not go full time. "The referee is given full power to decide whether there is basis for a protest or not."

LONDON LIFE WINS

The London Life Insurables defeated the City Hall Insurables by 6 to 1 at basketball Saturday evening.
