SAINTS FORCE LOCALS TO FAST PACE TO WIN BY SCORE OF 6-3

LONDON Next Games.

Jan. 20—St. Thomas at Tillsonburg.

Jan. 21—London at Ingersoli. London beat St. Thomas last night in the second game of the local O. H. A. Intermediate group by a score of 6 to 3. It all happened in the way of a bit of luck that the local speedsters chanced on last night to show about 50 per cent improvement over their Friday night appearance, or there would have been a different tale to tell. In the first period the Saints started out to show that their ingersoll defeat meant nothing by traveling right into the home products. In the first ten minutes, Baldwin had beaten Hynds twice, with Johnny Burgess sandwiching in a counter. That brought the locals up with a jerk and put them at work, with the result that Gillies tallied twice, and Arthurs once.

In the second period the Londoners romped away with all the speed and most of the play, but the best they could do was to stay on even terms with the visitors in the goal-getting, Gillies taking a pass from a face-off, and slipping in with a tally, and Baldwin beating Hynds from outside the defence.

The last period brought some hair-raising hockey, and both outfits kept up a tremendous pace. Some of it was slap-dash, some very unfinished and crude, and some of it bit of luck that the local speedsters

Neither of the subs showed much last night. Auld is game and ambitious, but lacks finish. Once the crew get conditioned, ten minutes of subbling will do them any game, so that end of it isn't worrying anybody. The Saints are a sturdy, hard-checking outfit, and are in the game for the full 60 minutes. Doan had little chance last night, and when he did get down Hynds picked them off easily enough.

Galt Wins 9--5 As Brants Attempt Come-Back Too Late.

BRANTFORD, Jan. 17 .- Brantford Intermediates were practically eliminated from the O. H. A. group when the team lost to the Galt outfit tonight by the score of 9 to 5.

The game was an exciting affair, with both teams showing bad blood. The Galt team early in the game showed much better form than the locals, and although the teams were well matched during the last period, the lead which Galt had secured in the early moments of the game was too much for the locals to overcome. Harvey Sproule of Toronto, handling the bell, made a number of heady occisions. The line-up:

Brantford—McKinnon, goal; Speck and O'Connor, defence; Verner, centre; McKough and McLaughlin, wings; Johnson and Knight, spares. by the score of 9 to 5.

CURLERS DRAW FOR THE BEATTY TROPHY

Have First Club 'Spiel Tonight At 7:15.

The London curlers will hold their first club bonspiels tonight at 7:15. Things will be started off with lots of pep, judging from the eagerness with which the members responded to the Saturday 'spiel.

The draw for the Beatty trophy, a curling competition especially arranged for the members of the London Curling Club, was arranged last night by Mr. S. F. Ashplant and Dr. A. J. Wright. The games will begin immediately, eighteen rinks being divided into two series, the winners of each meeting ultimately for the trophy. The rinks as arranged are:
