WOMAN: As She Appears for the Public Eye in the News of the Day

An Open Letter to the Women of Toronto

Madames: We beg respectfully to direct the attention of the women of Toronto, including about 5000 women (unmarried or widows) who are property owners, or forty years' leaseholders, to the importance of voting for the water filtration and sewage disposal bylaws on June 27, 1908, and to the equal importance of using every effort to induce other voters to do the same.

This is a matter that vitally affects the health and welfare of every home. And every woman should rouse herself from the lethargy which has hitherto prevented municipal action, and do her duty to her family. It is earnestly hoped that you will not allow plans for business or pleasure to prevent your family being represented at the polls on Saturday, June 27, 1908. Water filtration has been successful for seventy years in giving pure water, and the foremost cities of the world have adopted it. Toronto has been advised by the greatest engineering authorities, passed without one dissenting voice by our city council, endorsed by the board of trade, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, the Trades and Labor Council and the Guild of Civic Art and every other organization that has considered it approved it by the Academy of Medicine and the University of Toronto, urged upon us by the provincial board of health and the medical health officer of Toronto, Dr. Charles Sheard.

Sewage disposal is urgently needed. The waters of the bay no longer contain the unspeakable filth cast into it for many years at the rate of 25,000,000 gallons per day.

The workingman and very other man will find it cheaper to vote for the bylaws than to pay the doctor's bill, Toronto now loses, from typhoid and disease, 30 or 40 lives every year which pure water and proper sewage disposal would save.

Vote for the bylaws on June 27, 1908. Do not fail to attend the last meeting of the pure water campaign, to be held on Wednesday, June 24, at 4 p.m., in Brockton Hall, Dundas-street and Bloor-street.

Signed by Mrs. Terrington, president Toronto Local Council of Women; Mrs. J. Patterson, secretary Toronto Local Council of Women; Mrs. Archibald M. Huestis, convener public health committee, Local Council of Women, president Canadian House-hold Economic Association; Miss Curlette, president University Women's Club; Mrs. Jacobs, president Local Council of Jewish Women; Mrs. A. Stevens, president Women's Christian Temperance Union; Mrs. George Dickson, director St. Margaret's College; Mrs. K. K. principal, Everleigh Ladies' College; Mrs. A. F. Rutter, president Rosedale League of School Art; Miss Jessie A. Melville, president Women's Teachers' Association; Miss Addison, dean of Annesley Hall of Toronto, Dr. Helen MacMurchy.

QUEEN'S VISIT TO SICK GIRL
Her Majesty's Kindly Consideration of a Note Received From a Hospital Patient.

LONDON, June 22.—"Kind hearts are more than coronets," and Queen Alexandra has one of the kindest. On many occasions Her Majesty has proved this, but never more conclusively than when, accompanied by Princess Victoria, she paid a surprise visit to Luke's House, 14 Pembroke-square, Baywater, and spent half an hour with the patients. Her Majesty was escorted by the Hon. Charlotte Knollys and the Hon. Sydney Greville. The visit was an absolute surprise to all the officials of the institution, of which Her Majesty is the patroness, and also to the poor unfortunate girl for whose benefit Her Majesty specially made the call. It appears that some days ago Martha Massey, one of the patients in the house, the existence of which for the reception of cases of mortal illness in their latest phases, surreptitiously wrote a letter to the Queen, saying how much she would like to see her. The unfortunate girl, in respectful terms and delightfully simple phraseology, explained that she had always been unable to see the Queen when she was driving through London or visiting the neighborhood of the house owing to her illness. Her Majesty graciously her dying desire by coming to see her before going abroad, because she was afraid she would not be living when Her Majesty returned.

Touched by the sincerity of the mis- sive, Her Majesty, with characteristic love and thoughtfulness, decided to visit Miss Massey. No intimation of Her Majesty's intention was sent to the institution, which was reached at 4.45. Her Majesty driving from Buckingham Palace in her white motor-car. Arriving at the principal entrance, the Queen enquired at once, "Is Miss Massey in?" The door was opened by a servant girl, who instantly recognized

A Becoming Over-Dress.—No. 813

No. 813. Girls' Over-dress. Cut in sizes, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12 years. Eight-year sizes will require 2-3 yards of 36-inch material. This design shows a most becoming little over-dress, in a dainty development of figured lawn. The wide collar that outlines the low cut neck is a pretty feature, and the tucks at the shoulders give a becoming fullness to the mode. For challis, lawn, gingham and wash silk, the style is excellent.

A pattern of this illustration will be mailed to any address on the receipt of ten cents in silver.

ed the Queen, and momentarily stood astounded. The Queen, who was carrying a bouquet of orchids, lilies of the valley, carnations, and asparagus fern, was at once conducted to the ward in which Miss Massey lay. Surprise and joy overcame the patient for the moment, but a few minutes of sympathy quickly dispelled her nervousness. The Queen thanked the girl for her letter, and expressed the pleasure it afforded her to respond to the invitation, and then handed her the bouquet, telling her it was specially for her, and that the flowers were cut from the palace gardens. With eyes bedimmed with tears of joy, the girl briefly replied, "Thank you, Your Majesty." Passing a few moments with the Queen, who distributed roses to each, and spoke words of sympathy and encouragement. A touching incident occurred as Her Majesty was about to leave. Whilst chatting with the matron in the hall she heard someone cough, and asked who it was.

Being informed that it was Miss Massey, she ordered some cough lozenges to be brought from her motor-car and returned with them to the girl's bedside, where she placed one in the patient's mouth. The rest she handed to the matron with a request that they should be given to Miss Massey when she was again attacked by severe fits of coughing. Again shaking hands with the girl, the Queen once more bade good-bye and left the house.

At St. Margaret's.
The closing act at St. Margaret's College last night was brilliant social affair. The assembly hall and corridors were crowded with beautifully dressed women and their escorts. The prizes of the school were for the most part dressed in white.

The less brilliant but even more interesting even of the day was in the morning, when Goldwin Smith presented the certificates of honor. In the evening, prizes for general proficiency were presented and addresses delivered by Provost Macklen of Trinity College, Prof. Kilpatrick of Knox College, Co. J. I. Davidson, J. L. Hughes and Principal Macdonald of St. Andrew's College.

The prizes presented were: Special prizes—Scripture: Prize for highest standing in forms 4 and 5, Lillian McCortie; prize for highest standing in form 4, Jean Prittle and Daisy Carroll, equal.

Health and home, nursing prize: Pauline de Nancrede.
Plain sewing and art needlework: Lois Walbridge.

IT'S UP TO COUNTY JUDGE TO LOOK INTO BAIL FEES

City Council Backs Up Controllers —Walter Sterling Appointed Head Auditor.

Judge Winchester will be asked to investigate fees obtained by bail bonds in the local police court, the city council so deciding yesterday.

Ald. Church was against undertaking the expense, as he claimed that Judge Winchester had no jurisdiction in the matter.

Ald. Bengough suggested that the investigation should go into allegation that prisoners were at times subjected to the sweatbox procedure, but council decided that the enquiry should not be complicated. Ald. Church alone voted against the board of control's recommendation.

Unanimity was shown in deciding to apply for legislation to permit police inspectors in Toronto to grant bail to prisoners arrested after police court hours, thereby doing away with the inconvenience and loss of time in having to resort to police magistrates.

Wait Auditors' Report.
Ald. Keeler succeeded in having referred back the board's recommendation that legislation be sought to enable the city to create a separate audit department and appoint a chief auditor. The alderman contended that the report of the special auditors should be awaited and this was decided upon.

Ald. Foster and Bredin complained of "unseemly haste" by the controllers, the latter asserting that W. V. Jones, who recently resigned as city auditor, had not discharged his duties for 14 months previously. The city, he thought, could well wait a little longer.

Ald. Keeler did not fare as well with a motion to defer consideration of the treasury department, as city auditor, succeeding Mr. Jones at a salary of $3000 a year. The motion was proposed that the auditors' report first be received, but his motion was defeated on the following vote:

Mr. Coatsworth Gets It.
The appointment of Chas. E. Coatsworth as tax collector was confirmed, although Ald. McGhie asserted that collecting should be abolished altogether, as 90 per cent. of the taxes were paid in directly at the city hall. A "soft spot" for has been discovered in the job of tax collector.

A resolution was unanimously passed, asking that the city engineer construct a channel and roadway east of Chipewawa-avenue to connect with the main street, and that the assessment commissioner negotiate for the acquisition of the necessary lands, in view of the fact that the city is put annually to great expense in reconstructing the bridge on the island extending from Chipewawa-avenue easterly thru damage done to the bridge in the winter months.

The works committee will deal with Ald. Bengough's motion to negotiate with York Township with a view to the laying down of a flat iron railway for vehicles upon the heavy grade on Yonge-street between Walker-avenue and St. Clair-avenue, "so that the present cruel conditions for teaming horses will be abolished."

Controller Harrison read a cablegram received by the mayor from the British Ambassador in London, George Grey, stating that filtration in that city is proving successful. The controller also read a letter from Dr. McGhie, stating that the effect of the writer while in Berlin last year, inspected the filtration system and saw that the greater portion of the sewage was drawn from the Mugglesse River and filtered, while the well water used was also filtered.

A motion of Controller Spence a special committee was appointed to consider methods of dealing with the unwholesome conditions in the fall of the year of unemployed men who are not citizens of Toronto.

Ald. Bengough, who was married and prize night for receiving with vigorous poundings of desks. The mayor expressed the good wishes of council, and the grateful alderman responded happily.

AFTER RIVER PIRATES
Ottawa and Hull Police Are Using Gasoline Launches.

OTTAWA, June 22.—Owing to two big burglaries at Angers and East Templeton, Que., which capped a series of robberies along Ottawa River towns, the Ottawa and Hull police are scouring the river between the capital and Thurso on fast motor boats. The river pirates are supposed to have their headquarters on an island somewhere in the rapids on either bank.

Yesterday the robberies at Angers and East Templeton aggregated nearly $400.

Twelve honest men are worth fifty lawyers, and, perhaps, a dozen judges," was the comment of Chief Justice Meredith yesterday morning in the division court at Osgoode Hall.

John A. Paterson, K.C., was endeavoring to persuade the division court that the finding of the jury in the second trial of the action of J. S. Clark against William Gollidge was not what it should have been.

Gollidge, a Brant County farmer, had J. S. Clark arrested because of a promise made to him by the defendant, Clark, to pay him $1000 for damages for malicious arrest, the jury bringing in a verdict for $100. Gollidge appealed, and the appeal was allowed. The court has dismissed the appeal for a new trial.

WILL ADD 1600 ACRES TO AREA OF THIS CITY

Aldermen With One Dissenting Voice Favor Expansion Including Annexation of East Toronto.

The city council decided wisely yesterday afternoon upon a policy of a Greater Toronto.

Ald. McGhie, who is the original watchman on the conning tower when it comes to spotting perils in the city's applications for legislation, opposed asking power to annex East Toronto, Deer Park and Wychwood with other territory "in the Township of York, between the easterly and northerly limits of the city, extending to a point 400 feet north of the north limit of Danforth-avenue and continuing westerly at the distance of 400 feet north of the north limit of Danforth-avenue to a point north of the southwesterly junction of the city and township limits at the belt line railway right-of-way."

Ald. McGhie thought the undertaking one of mammoth proportions, and that every known species of civic official should report upon it; no less than about 1600 acres being comprised in the territory.

Controller Spence said that agitation against annexation in the outside districts was traceable to the radial railways, which wanted to tie them up with franchises. There was grave danger that unless the city took action it would find, when expansion became imperative, that there would half a dozen separate railway lines in operation. Annexation at once was desirable as a means of preventing the further erection of a poor class of buildings in these districts.

Ald. McGhie voted alone against the expansion policy.

DIAMOND AGENT GONE
Said to Be Held for Ransom at $10,000.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Meyer Newman, a diamond salesman, left his home at No. 1855 Fulton-avenue, the last Tuesday morning, with $2000 worth of diamonds, and he has not returned home since. His wife, who is one the verge of a nervous breakdown, said that he believed her husband is being held for ransom, and that he will be killed if $10,000 is not paid to his captors. Two anonymous letters, in which demands for $10,000 have been made upon the diamond firm of Stern Bros. & Co., 28 Gold-street, and 28 Nassau-street, have been received by that firm, and were turned over to the police, who are investigating the strange disappearance of Newman.

CABINET MEETING TO-DAY.
Rumor Has It That Mr. Monteth Will Quit Politics.

A cabinet council meeting will be held to-day, at which most of the Ontario ministers will be present. Hon. Nelson Monteth is expected from Perth County, where his defeat has been officially confirmed. It was rumored that he would accept the verdict as final, but Premier Whitney had nothing to say on the matter one way or the other.

There is no need for hurry in arriving at a decision, and it is unlikely that anything will be done which would bring on a by-election for the present.

J. H. Carnegie, East Victoria, is regarded as the most likely successor to Hon. Mr. Monteth, outside the cabinet, should a successor be required.

A United Pledge.
A combined picnic, including all the branches of the Anglican Young People's Associations in Toronto, will be held to-morrow (Wednesday) to Mount View Park, Hamilton. The affair is under the auspices of the Presidents' Association of the A.Y.P.A., representing some 25 branches, and a large attendance is assured. The steamer Turbina has been specially engaged for the occasion, and it is the intention of the committee in charge to make it one of the most enjoyable picnics of the season.

Mrs. John Little, Rosedale, has issued invitations for an at home on Thursday, June 25, from 4 to 6:30 o'clock, to meet Mrs. William B. Little.

MASONIC FUNERAL
Arrangements for the Interment To-day of Harry Collins.

Out of respect for the late supreme treasurer, Harry Ardagh Collins, the I.O.F. Temple Building will be draped to-day and the offices will be closed. The funeral will be conducted by Doric Masonic Lodge, and the simple Masonic ritual will be followed at the house and the graveside. Previous to this public service, Rev. A. J. Broughall, Rev. Mr. Field and Rev. Alex. MacGillivray will hold a private service at the residence, 20 Major-street, for the family of deceased. The burial will be at Mount Pleasant, and the hour of the funeral is 2.30.

The pall-bearers have been selected to represent four of the Masonic bodies to which Mr. Collins belonged, as follows: Doric Lodge—Harry Leeson, Arthur Pearson.

St. Patrick's Chapter—John A. Cowan, W. S. Milne.
Geoffrey de St. Aldemar Preceptory—John H. McKinnon, Chris. J. Hohl.
Rumess Temple—Alf Maguire, Geo. P. Sharkey.
J. D. McGill, undertaker, 282 College-street, has charge of the arrangements. Many telegrams and letters of condolence have been arriving for Mrs. Collins and her family, and sympathy is very widespread.

It is expected that the executive of the supreme court of the I.O.F. will meet to-morrow and appoint a successor to Mr. Collins. It is necessary that the position be filled at once, as all the payments made have to be signed by the supreme treasurer.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.
But "Driscoll Climbed Stairs and Got Away Via Fire Escape."

KINGSTON, June 22.—(Special.)—Crouched under a stairway and with a bundle containing several pairs of clothes, Charles Driscoll, well-known to the local police, was found in the store of Crawford & Walsh, tailors, at an early hour this morning by Edwin Walsh, who just happened to drop in with a couple of friends to look at a fishing-pole.

Driscoll told a fake story about being chased by two enemies and taking refuge in the store. When he found this story would not go, he dashed up two flights of stairs, went out thru a window and made his escape over the fire-escape. In his hurry he dropped his bundle. Walsh gave chase, but could not catch him, and the police were also unsuccessful.

It is believed he crossed the line to Watertown. He was employed by Crawford & Walsh for a time. The roll at the penitentiary now numbers 512, the largest in five years.

Who Chow Inundated.
HONGKONG, June 22.—The City of Wuchow is inundated by the abnormal rise of 70 feet in the Pu River. Many casualties are reported.
