and following a short speech from Second Deputy Reeve Robert Barker, the new aspirant for municipal honors George Syme, jr., spoke at some length and was well received. He urged that and was well received. He urged that there was need for a change, and declared that acclamations were not in the best interests of the township. The west was entitled to more represen-tation, and his policy would be one of economy with progress. A number of interruptions, all more or less goodnatured, took place during Mr. Syme's address, but the chairman kept the crowd well in hand. Ex-Councillor "Jerry" Nelson got a rousing reception, and in the course of a half hour's talk dealt very fully with many of the outstanding questions before the council, and in the settlement of which he claimed to have taken an active part.
