BOYS SHOW ELDERS WAY IN RECRUITING

"If some of our healthy eligible young men could listen to the appeals of lads under 18 years of age who want to fight for Canada it would certainly hasten their decision to en-list some day," said an officer last night.

"Last week the recruiting officer of the 70th Overseas Battery in the Lawlor Building had applications from ten fine young lads all under age, most of them between 16 and 17. How they begged of him to use his influence to secure the parents' consent, the schemos they proposed, the repeated visits, the tears of disappointment that welled in eager eyes is too long a story and almost too sad, but surely their example will inspire some lagging example will inspire some lagging eligible!"

ON NICKEL QUESTION

Strong criticism of the provincial gov rnment in its failure to formulate a onstructive and forward policy dealing with the vexed question of the exporta tion of nickel to the United States, together with a rousing appeal by Lieut.
Col. Brown to the young men of North
York to raily to the call of the empire were the outstanding features of the King Township Liberal picnic held in the Village of Kettleby on Saturday after-

King Township Liberal picnic held in the Village of Kettleby on Saturday afternoon.

When the committee in charge of the affair filed the date of the big rally they had not reckoned on two or three outstanding circumstances, to wit, the condition of the weather and the fact that the farmers of the historic old riding would be in the midst of the biggest hay crop ever grown in central Ontario.

In spite, however, of these the picnic was a great success, between 4000 and 5000 people taking part in the proceedings. The affair was for the most part wholly non-political and patriotic in its nature and the entire proceeds of the day, a large sum, were all handed over to the commanding officer of the 220th York Rangers Overseas Battalion for home comforts.

There was a formidable list of speakers, chief among these being: Hon, Mackenzie King, A. W. Roebuck, Liberal nominee in Timiskaming: ex-Mayor Thos. Urquhart, Oliver Hezzlewood, J. M. Walton, J. H. Widdifield, Lieut.-Col. Brown and a number of others. A feature of the afternoon was the presence of the splendid band of the 48th Highlanders, who gave a number of selections during the afternoon and a concert in the evening.

The band of the 220th York Rangers, as well as the Aurora Brass Band, added to the pleasure of the occasion.

"The great problem following the war will be a readjustment of the economic conditions which will then obtain, and to that all serious thinking men must give earnest heed," said A. W. Roebuck in a thoughtful address. He claimed that the enormous number of men to be released from military service would give a joit to business conditions generally. The solution was to be found in some measure in the opportunities which would be presented in the northland of Ontario.

He dealt with the smmense area of ing of a provincial Liberal convention to decide on a policy for the future.

Later he charged that Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways, was a creature of the International Company, that Hon. W. H. Hearst, premier of Ontario, was a creature of the International Company and that neither of these men could be elected in their respective constituencies without the assistance of the International Nickel Company.

Pleads For Recruits.

Oliver Hezzelwood, chairman of the Citizens' Recruiting League, said: "The farmers may think their sons are needed ed on the farm, but they are needed infinitely worse to serve in the cause of the empire."

ed on the Larin, deat the cause of the empire."

Lieut.-Col. Brown, commanding the 12th York Rangers, declated that it was a shame that a commanding officer should need to devote his time to the work of recruiting. "The 20th are having a hard row to hoe," said the colonel, "and I am beginning to feel very deeply the responsibility resting upon myself and the other officers of the battalion. Some people think the farmer is a privileged class, but my business is just as important," he said.

Hon. Mackenzle King dealt at considerable length with the contributory causes leading up to the war. Ex-Mayor Thos. Urquhant stated that he had changed his views regarding conscription and now favored registration and conscription in a modified form, as in England. The chairman was Bert Crane of Newmerket.

John Wilkle of Nobleton won the prize as being the oldest Conservative on the grounds. Mr. Wilkle is $4, while Daniel O'Brien, a neighbor, with $4 years to his credit, carried off the honors as being the oldest Liberal.

Attacked Nickel Question.

He dealt with the immense area of valuable nickel iands, 100,000 acres, owned wholly and operated to a very limited extent by the International Nickel Company, a foreign corporation, and the entire proceeds of which went across the lime and, without a shadow of a doubt, ultimately to German consignees and the German Government. The time was ripe for the inauguration of a constructive nickel policy by the Liberal party, and in this connection he favored the calling of a provincial Liberal convention to
