

THE THIN MAN.

USTOM tailors and "ready-made" manufacturers will tell you the "thin man" is the easiest physique in the world to fit.

They cut down a size larger and rig him out somehow.

With us the thin man is neither more nor less difficult than any physique.

We recognize in him a type just as the stout man or the regular man are considered as types—and tailor suits especially for his figure.

Then each Semi-ready suit is tailored to the try-on stage.

You can judge effect of color and design and fit before you buy, what ever may be your physique.

Suit delivered two hours after fitting.

ledged the address in cordial terms. He began by showing that the government had failed to make provision for the effective prosecution of the country's affairs who had nourished by reason of their skill in manipulating elections. The appointment of Mr. Borden as minister of the interior in consideration of his services to the party was referred to by Mr. Borden as a compliment to his ability. Richard Cartwright's action was that Jackson had not been discreet.

Mr. Borden went over the difficulties in the way of the auditor-general, and declared the necessity for a close sympathy with Dundonald.

The audience declared its sympathy with Lord Dundonald in a most able manner. Mr. Borden said that the interference of politicians in the militia affairs was a disgrace. It was time for someone to speak out, and to speak out in a way to bring the condition of affairs before the people of Canada. Lord Dundonald might have proceeded more regularly, but his true light to the province.

There was also the case of Col. Greider who was forced to resign his command because he was told to make a declaration which he did not believe to be true. The interference of politicians in the militia affairs was not in the interest of the people or in accordance with Liberal doctrine.

MR. BORDEN AT AYLMER.

Addressed Afternoon Meeting, Opening His Ontario Tour.

Aylmer, Sept. 15.—(Staff Special.)—R. L. Borden, M.P., began his Ontario western tour this afternoon, addressing a gathering which filled the town hall here. He is accompanied by Mrs. Borden, Richard Blain, M.P., and Dr. Henderson, M.P., for Halton. The Conservative leader, Mr. Borden, was met at the depot by a reception committee, and conveyed to the Brown House for dinner.

The reception committee comprised A. B. Ingram, M.P.; C. A. Brower, M.L.A.; Oscar McConkey, vanguard; David Strickland, George W. Copeland, L. W. Pierce, S. Pierce, J. C. Heiter, E. A. Miller, W. H. Hume, Charles Lumsden, ex-mayor of Aylmer, and Dr. Henderson, M.P. The ladies' reception committee consisted of Mrs. A. H. Backus, Mrs. W. Lindsay and W. H. Finch.

The platform of the hall was hung with bunting. Among those on the platform were: Rev. J. W. Rae, Rev. Ralph Trotter and Rev. A. B. Farmer. Mr. Borden, M.P., declared that the Conservative party had six leaders who were elected in 1891, their policy remained the same. Mr. Borden, he declared, was a statesman equal to any who had preceded him. He was a man always ready to proclaim the principles of his party.

HAPPY TO BE STRONG AGAIN

After Three Years of Low Vitality. Indigestion and Rheumatism—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Made the Change.

Mrs. M. A. Clock, Meaford, Ont., writes: "Three years ago I became very much run down in health and suffered from weak, tired feelings, indigestion and rheumatism. At times I was so badly used that I required help to move in bed. While sick and downhearted I received Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and sent for some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"Under this treatment I soon began to improve, and by the time I had used eleven boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was happy to find myself strong and well again. I often think of what a lot of money I spent for medicines which did me no good, and how I owe my life to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I hope women who suffer as I did will benefit by my experience and use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Company, Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous medical book author, are on every box.

BLENNHEIM HOTELKEEPERS SEEK A MANDATORY ORDER

Mr. Johnston Argues That Commissioners, in Legislating, Exceeded Their Power.

Mr. Johnston, K.C., appeared before Justice Macleod yesterday for a mandatory order directed to the commissioners of the city of Blenheim, to compel them to grant licenses to three hotel keepers in the town of Blenheim. The argument concerned the entire afternoon, being concluded shortly after 6 o'clock.

Mr. Johnston argued that the commissioners went out of their way to legislate for the people of the district and exceeded their powers. He had been no complaint against the hotel, and the commissioners had no right to exercise any discretion in this country. He asserted that the commissioners had exceeded their powers.
