Inspired by the success of Bat. Nelson, Billy Evans, John L. Sullivan and Christy Mathewson, as adventurers into the field of literature, either as writers of books or contributors to the daily press. Hugh Jennings, not unknown locally and in other large league towns, has decided to spill a little ink himself. His admirers in his home town have convinced him that some of the other celebrities were putting something over cn him, and Hughie decided on a plunge into the syndicate newspaper feature game. Unfortunately because of the early start south of tilgers, decided on after Hughie beganis literary work. Mr. Jennings will be forced to postpone his real efforts for some months. He had planned a series of articles on the game itself and proper methods of training, and some reminiscences of the world's series and of othe famous mix-ups in which he personally had been concerned; but the early start of the club has interfered, and Hughie will content himself with seeing one article in print now, resuming his labors in the fall.

At San Francisco, official assurance has been given to Jack Gleason that he can hold the Jeffries and Johnson fight in that city on July 4. Supervisor John L. Herget, formerly Young Mitchell, a boxer, who is chairman of the police committee of the board of supervisors, before which the applications for fight permits are heard, said he believed Gleason to be sincere in his attitude of independence towards Tex. Rickard, and that he would give the local promoter his support.

The high rollers for the suit or overcoat monthly prize at the Brunswick Alleys are as follows: H. Phelan 621, C. Adams 585, W. Hughes 580, F. Phelan 555, W. Brydon 542, A. Tomlin 535, E. Pierce 521.

Tex. Rickard is in Ogden, Utah, to meet a local committee that has been working to bring to Ogden the Jeffries and John-son fight. It is said that the mayor will offer no opposition to the match if it is called a "boxing contest." Rickard said that San Francisco would not get the flight if enough inducement were offered to take it, elsewhere.

At Chicago, Yussif Mahmout, the Turk, and Stanislaus Zbyszko, Polish champion, have been matched to wrestle a handicap bout in private on Jan. 30 for $500 a side. According to the articles of agreement, Mahmout is to throw Zbyszko twice in one hour of actual wrestling, or to lose the match. If the Pole gains a fall he shall be declared the winner. The place is to be selected by E. W. Smith, who will act as referee, name the official time-keepers, and arrange other details of the match.

Dorando then stopped to change his shoes, ran a short dis-tance and stopped to change them again, but he was obviously suffering. At the seventeenth mile Dorando was nineteen laps behind and Gardiner, running steadily and easily, continued to lap him at will. Dorando struggled on bravely. He had the spirit and made a noble fight, but he was not up to his old form and could not stand the pace. He continued to lose ground and at the twenty-first mile was one mile behind the Englishman. At the twenty-third mile human nature could stand no more and Dorando gave up the ghost and fell on the track. Sympathy for Fitzsimmons. Much sympathy is expressed for Bob Fitzsimmons, the "grand old man," who has met his Waterloo at the hands of Bill Lange, the youngster who claims the championship of Australia. But, Fitzsimmons is making money at that. He is under contract with Hugh McIntosh, and has yet to fight two battles and earn the $25,000 reward pledged by McIntosh. Just who will be Fitzsimmon's next antagonist is a matter that has not yet been settled.
