

in advance and notwithstanding all the care I took to prevent it, they succeeded <sup>in getting</sup> ~~to get~~ behind in their rent in most cases. When this happened however, as soon as new locatees presented themselves I would turn out the old ones.

There is a discrepancy of one dollar between my ~~between~~ statements and the amount paid in; This error must have taken place when the first payments were made.

The return of the rents collected during the month of August last was transmitted to the Dept. with my October return as I wished to avail myself of that time to enforce the payments of the arrears. ~~etc.~~

I have &c
