A Calais letter says--Frank Belyea, who has been the popular manager of the box shop connected with Ganong's candy factory in St. Stephen, will leave at an early date for St. John to take charge of a box shop to be established in connection with the Corona candy factory in that city, a branch of the St. Stephen business. The employees of the box shop as a slight token of their friendship and esteem, presented to Mr. Belyea a handsome traveling bag. Mr. and Mrs. Belyea made many friends on the border during their residence in St. Stephen, and will be followed to their new home by the best wishes of all.

FROM KILTIES' COMMANDER

Mrs. E. A. Young, president of the First West Side St. John's Circle, has received the following letter from the Kilties' commander:

Fredericton, N.B., June 5th, 1917.
From O.C. 286th O.S. Batta., C.E.F.

Dear Friends:

I wish to thank you on behalf of the officers, N.C.O.'s and men of the 286th Overseas Battalion (the New Brunswick Kilties--Sir Sam's Own), C. E. F., for your thoughtfulness and kindness in contributing recent shipment of socks, which has come through the medium of the Soldiers' Club of St. John.

We soldiers deeply appreciate any kindness of this kind, and we will carry away to France (when we go) fond recollections of those who have always had our interests at heart, and who have spent so many tedious hours contributing to our comfort.

Yours faithfully,
P. A. GUTHRIE.

MONTREAL FAMILY DRUGGED; HOUSE ROBBED AS THEY SLEPT

Montreal, June 16--A family of six persons were victims of the most desperate attempt at burglary ever perpetrated in the city and one that if carried out on a large scale, the police declare will spread terror to the inhabitants. The practice of raising windows at night time and leaving a clear way for marauders, has resulted in no fewer than ten burglaries during the last six days.

The boldness of the last attack on six persons is without parallel in the underworld of Montreal. Six people at 2202 Waverley street, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Speiglitz and their children were chloroformed by burglars, who roamed through the house at will once the drug had overcome the family. They took every article of value to be found and all the cash in a purse. The amount was placed at $25. After tossing articles around the room the burglars threw the empty purse to the floor.

In the morning the husband and father detected a strong odor of chloroform or some other drug which he believes was used on the sleeping family. The detective department was notified. An open window off the gallery of the house was the way the night prowlers secured entrance.

PRESENTS STARS AND STRIPES TO 236TH BATTALION

Rousing Farewell to Kilties in Boston

EVERYBODY ENTHUSIASTIC

Will Carry American Flag in France Side By Side With the Union Jack -- Five Thousand People at Boston Meeting

Boston, Mass., June 16--Five thousand men, women and children cheered, shouted and sang farewell and God Speed to the Kilties Battalion at Mechanics Hall last night. The great hall was filled to the last chair and to the last inch of standing room. Speeches were glibly and usually not more than five minutes in length, and the speakers included Mayor Curley, General E. Leroy Sweetser, Major T. L. Hunt of the regulars, Mrs. P. F. Godenrath, "mother of the battalion," Col. Walter Scott and Lieut. Col. Percy A. Guthrie, commanding the Kilties, known in the service as the 236th Overseas Regiment.

Pipe bands skirted their way around the auditorium raising Scotch and Canadian enthusiasm. If there was anything needed to mark a climax it came when Col. Scott "chief of all the Scottish clans in America," presented to Col. Guthrie a silk American flag, the 236th will march into France flying the Stars and Stripes beside the Union Jack.

Colonel Guthrie expressed his gratitude to Boston. He said his battalion now lacked only fifty men.

PHILIPPE HEBERT A NOTED SCULPTOR

Sketch of Designer of Tilley Monument--He Died in Montreal This Week

A noted Canadian is dead in Montreal in the person of Philippe Hebert, sculptor.

Mr. Hebert died after an illness extending back almost to last fall, but serious only during the last two months. He was sixty-eight years of age.

He was best known in Montreal as the artist who designed the famous Maisonneuve Monument at Place d'Armes and the King Edward statue of St. Philippe. He had been awarded many titles during his distinguished career. He was a C. M. G. and a member of the R. C. A. He was a Knight of St. Gregoire Le Grand. He was born in Ste. Sophie d'Halifax, Megantic, and was brought up in the rude life of pioneer farming. From an early age he took great delight in following his father to the woods, especially on his hunting trips, and his childish mind toiled to the poetry of solitude, so that at the age when most boys look for companionship, he would often pass hours by himself in the forest, fascinated by the numerous churches, museums and grand monuments, which fired his imagination, and of which he took himself away to return to Canada and farming for three more years.

His First Work

In the autumn of 1878 he went to Montreal and exhibited a small wooden bust of the French poet Beranger, at the provincial exhibition. This piece of work attracted the attention of Napoleon Bourassa, himself an artist, who engaged young Hebert to remain with him. This was the beginning of his artistic career. He worked four years in collaboration with Mr. Bourassa at the stately and decorating of the Church of Notre Dame de Lourdes, St. Catherine street. His spare time he devoted to drawing, wood-carving, modelling and sculpture, following the courses at the "Arts and Manufactures" two evenings a week. He read extensively, going through piles of literature dealing with art in all its branches, and with the history of art, in 1880 he received his first order. This was for the carving of wooden statues for the Cathedral in Ottawa, then followed in 1882 those for the Church of Notre Dame in Montreal.

His first commission for a large monument was for the one erected to de Selabery at Chambly. Some of his other principal orders were those of Sir George Etienne Cartier, erected in parliament buildings at Ottawa; to Sir John Macdonald, Queen Victoria and Alexander Mackenzie in Parliament Square, Ottawa; Howe at Halifax to Sir Leonard Tilley in St. John, N. B.; and in Quebec, "Abenakis Indian Family," and the historical statues decorating the parliament buildings; also the Laval monument. In Montreal his works are those to Mgr. Bourget, Cremazie, Young and the well known monument in Place d'Armes Square, erected to Maisonneuve, the founder of Montreal.

The monument erected to the Canadian heroine, Madeleine de Vercheres, at the south shore of the St. Lawrence, is the spot where her heroic deed was enacted, is also the work of Hebert.

In 1879, Mr. Hebert married Mlle. Marie Roy, daughter of the late Thos. Roy, of Montreal, and niece of the late Victor Roy. She survives him with two daughters, Mrs. Hebert, Hebert, A. R. C. A., a Montreal sculptor, and instructor of free-hand drawing and modelling in the Architecture Department of McGill University; and Adrien Hebert, painter, who likewise is a regular exhibitor at the Art Exhibition spring shows and the R. C. A. exhibitions. The two daughters are Miss Yvonne and Miss Pauline Hebert.

PRESENTATION TO FREE KINDERGARTEN WORKERS

Mathews, president of the association, who is leaving the city for Winnipeg, where she will take a position there in connection with the Methodist church. Mrs. Branscombe, who is leaving for Montreal in the near future, was also made the recipient of a present from the members of the association in which she was a zealous worker.
