extent; and we earnestly hope that immediate measures may be adopted for giving effect to the Acts of the Imperial Legislature on this subject, and thus affording assistance to those who are making such laudable efforts to procure the means of religious instruction.

We beg leave to express our grateful sense of the interest which your Excellency has manifested in the welfare of our church, and the liberal aid which on many occasions you have afforded for the erection of places of worship; and we assure you that these expressions of your Excellency's kindness and good will are warmly appreciated both by us and our people.

That Almighty God may bestow upon your Excellency every temporal and spiritual blessing and make you partaker of a heavenly inheritance, is our fervent prayer.

At Kingston, this Seventh Day of July, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty Five Years; — Signed in Name, in Presence, and by Appointment of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, in connection with the Church of Scotland, by
