UNREST IN QUEBEC.

The Quebec Chronicle in a news story describes the unrest which exists in that city and in the vicinity of the city. It points out that there is only work for about one hundred men at the present time, while normally there are some 700 men employed in the city. The shipyard has been practically closed since the close of the navigation and the only work on now is the contract for the overhauling of the steamer Belvedere, a $30,000 job. If nothing turns up the men who are now employed will soon be out of work, and as there is unrest the men state that unless something is done they will have to do something to make their position known.

Amateur Clamps.

Philadelphia, Feb. 15.—The Philadelphia Amateur Clamps, which were organized for the purpose of the uniformity of its architecture, must have contained in 1760 many houses of the style of that time. In addition to a garage this dwelling had three stories respectively eleven, ten and nine feet high. The brick outside walls were fourteen inches thick and the partition walls of the same height, nine inches. There were windows and window glass, heavy shutters, a plain cornice, cedar gutters and pipes. The woodwork, inside and out, was painted white, and all the rooms were plastered. No mention is made of white marble steps, but there may have been such, for no Philadelphia house was complete without them.—"Colonial Folkways," Charles M. Andrews.

Moncton and Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 15.—Efforts are being made to bring the Moncton Independent team to Halifax to play a league team here on next Monday. President A. C. Wadsworth of the City Hockey League, said that the amateurs would not object to the Independents being given a date at the arena as was the case when it was suggested that Halifax should enter a team in the Independent League.

Jack Chisholm Hurt.

Antigonish, Feb. 15.—Jack Chisholm, captain of the Antigonish League Cross hockey team, 1921 champions of Nova Scotia, suffered a fractured rib in practice and it is thought will be out of the game for two weeks.

A meeting of the members of the St. John Amateur Rowing Club was held last night to discuss arrangements for the Provincial Amateur Rowing Championships to be held under their auspices in the Annapolis on Tuesday, February 28.

A committee, consisting of Harry Belyea, J. C. Chesley, Harry Ervin and Hugh McCarver, was appointed to look after the arrangements. It is expected that boxes of all classes from all parts of the province, will be present to take part in the championships.
