We Could Close Our 22 Stores And Tailor Shops With Profit If We Were Minded To Do So

WE could hoard up our woollens against the time when they would be in demand at treble the prices they command today. But we have never taken this view of the situation—we are in business to do business—in fact we take just a bit of personal pride in our wartime record—there has been no interruption to the good and satisfactory service we have been giving our patrons.

Today you should welcome an investment opportunity such as we are offering—and remember that our Made-to-Measure Garments will pay for themselves twice over—you will do well to order now for future needs while we are able to quote our present standard price.

More Quality Less Money

This $17 line of fabrics does not interfere with our big $18 Values.

WE were never as busy as now in our 22 Stores and Tailor Shops taking orders for and making garments to measure. Many of our customers are placing orders and are frankly telling us that they have no need for the garments until a year or more from now, but that they are ordering against the rise in price. We cannot urge with too much emphasis that our patrons fortify themselves now for future needs—woollen prices will be almost unbelievably higher in the very near future.
