

HOLY SATURDAY SERVICES END LENTEN SEASON

Catholic Church Period Came to Close at Noon Today

MANY ATTEND GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES

Father Cloran at Cathedral—Stations at East Saint John.

This is Holy Saturday, and in the Catholic church the Lenten season came to a close at noon today. This morning a large congregation gathered in the Cathedral for the ceremony of the blessing of the paschal candle and the Easter water and other special events of the day. His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc officiated, assisted by the priests of the Cathedral and visitors from several parts of the diocese. The ordination of five priests also took place. It is referred to elsewhere.

GOOD FRIDAY.

Very large congregations marked the Good Friday services in the Cathedral yesterday. The Mass of the Pre-Sanctified was celebrated at 10 o'clock by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, with Rev. W. M. Duke, deacon; Rev. S. Oram, sub-deacon; Rev. Dr. L. Guerin, high priest; Rev. Charles Boyd, master of ceremonies. The psalm was sung by Rev. P. F. Walker, Rev. Miles P. Howland and Rev. A. Harral. The veneration of the cross followed. At 3 o'clock there was a public mak-

ALL HUMBAG URIC ACID NEVER DID CAUSE RHEUMATISM

Free Book Explains Why.

If you want to get rid of rheumatism, you must first get rid of the old belief that uric acid causes it. Read the book that is helping thousands. It's called "The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism," and it's well worth reading because it tells, in simple words that anyone can understand, the truth about rheumatism, gout, neuritis, sciatica and lumbago. The tenth edition is just off the press and a free copy will be mailed to you if you will send your name and address (a postal will do) today to H. P. ing of the way of the cross. In the evening the Tenebrae was chanted for the last time and among those assisting were the five young men who were to be ordained to the priesthood in the Cathedral this morning. These are Revs. Messrs. Kinisla, Butler and Nichol, of Saint John; Hennaberry, of Fredericton, and Gillen, of Moncton.

The sermon was preached by Rev. James Cloran, C.S.S.R., of St. Peter's church, and was a powerful picturization of three episodes in the story of the cross. These were the agony in the garden, the condemnation of Jesus to death and the crucifixion. God's claim to the love and loyalty of man was eloquently presented in a sermon that made a deep impression on the large congregation.

WORDS FROM CROSS

The Three Hours Agony was observed in St. Peter's church yesterday between the hours of 12 o'clock and 3 o'clock. Short addresses were given on the seven last words of Christ from the Cross, the preachers being Rev. James Cloran, C.S.S.R., Rev. A. MacDonald, C.S.S.R., and Rev. F. Hill, C.S.S.R., who each gave two addresses and Rev. M. Costello, C.S.S.R., who

STATIONS OF CROSS.

The impressive ceremony of the erection of the Stations of the Cross took place last night in the Stella Maria church in East Saint John. Rev. C. P. Carleton, of Silver Falls, officiated and was assisted by Rev. F. Walker, parish priest, and Rev. S. C. Oram, of Riverside. Father Oram was the preacher. There was a large congregation.

The stations are the gift of a member of the congregation and have been erected in the basement of the church which is being used for the services until the building is completed.

If you could read the many testimonials which have been pouring in from people everywhere telling us of the marvelous results from using Carnol, you would be convinced that Carnol is a wonderful remedy. What Carnol did for Miss Mosher reads almost like a miracle. She says—"In the winter of 1921 I contracted a severe cold and my cough was so bad that my friends thought I would not live. One day while I was visiting a friend, a physician was in the house upstairs. He heard me cough and came down to see who it was. He told me that if I did not start doctoring that cough at once, serious results would follow. He gave me a prescription for Carnol. The next day I was taken down with a
