Two Specials in Our Corset Department for Tuesday

The good builder does not place his structure upon an old foundation, where the fine work of the architect would be lost by poorly lined masonry. Neither can your new Fall suit or gown be made to look its best if worn over an old, poorly fitting corset.

Every lady should take advantage of these specials for Tuesday, and provide for her new Fall garments a foundation that will do justice to the graceful lines of the designer.

Buy Your Canned Goods Now and in Case Lots.

If you were to take a look through the cellars of the people of Halifax and Dartmouth, you would find that a large number have already bought and have stored away sufficient coal to last them throughout the winter. Yet these people buy canned goods in two or three tin lots, although they use many dozen throughout the season. Is this the case with you? Perhaps you have not thought just how unreasonable it is. Why not buy in case lots at the first of the season?

For the moment we throw out the suggestion. Drop in and let us talk it over and we will show you just how much you can save.

Safe Investment.

ONE of the safest investments of to-day is to place your spare cash in building lots. It will in a short time yield for you a large return. No fear of land depreciating in value. Pur-chase a lot as an investment if you do not want it for yourelf, secure one for your wife or children as a sensible present, and watch it grow in value. Do not buy it for cash, pay for it by instalments. The easy pay-ments you will never miss. Call and see us, and we will explain the plan more fully,

Celebrated British Scientist After Applying the Most Rigid Tests to Spiritistic Phenomena For Many Years Has Arrived at the Conclusion That Their Reali'y Is Beyone

It will be remembered that W. T. Science has now taken a decided hand in this problem, debated and dehateable from the beginning of senof the famous Englishman, Sir Oliver of the famous Englishman, Sir Oliver Lodge, admittedly the best all-round scientist in the world at the present time. He is president of the British-Association, the most authoritative scientific body on earth, and he has announced that in his presidential address on September 10, he will offer complete evidence to show "an ulticomplete evidence to show "an ultimate continuity of existence before and after death as essential to science," which, if accepted, will be a distinct alignment of the most advanced scientific thought on the side of immortality. Sir Oliver already has asserted that "the boundary between the two states—the known and the unknown life and death—is the unknown, life and death - is wearing thin in places, and excavators are engaged in boring a tunnel from are engaged in boring a tunnel from opposite ends. We are beginning to hear now and then strokes from the pickages of our comrades on the oth-

To Make Coal Mining Safe. One of the simplest of the many suggested tests for fire-damp in mines is that described by Henry Briggs to the Scottish Society of Arts. It is an attachment that may be applied to any oil or spirit safety lamp, and consists of a loop of copper wire supported on a brass rod passing through the oil ressel. To make a test the loop

Trying To Dodge a Curse Trying To Dodge a Curse.

In the Bodleian Library at Oxford, says Prof. Thayer, an old manuscript contains this warning: "This book belongs to St. Mary of Roberts Bridge; whosoever shall steal it, or sell it, or in any way allenate it from this house, let him be anathemamaranatha. Amen." Underneath this a later owner has written: "I, John, Bishop of Exeter, know not where the aforesaid house it, nor did I steal this book, but acquired it in a lawful way."

FARMING IMPROVES. More Scientific Methods Spreading

In this refulgent summer time t farmers of Ontario are a busy let. T crops are immense and they have to garnered. Old Man Ontario has all garnered. Old Man Onterio has all he can do and more, in some counties. In fact, he is crying in vain for help. He misses the hired man. It may be some comfort to know that son and daughter, who responded to the call of the west and the lure of the city, are doing well but he certainly does miss the hired man.

but he certainly does miss the hired man.

Without considering what has become of H. M., whither he has hiked nor why, it may be stated that his absence seriously cripples the farming industry of; this most populous and wealthy province of the Dominion of Canada; that there is a decided dearth of operative help on the farms. The tide of immigration affords no relief. Even the picked farm laborers selected in the Old Country by representatives of different Outario county organizations are captured by Canadian city contractors before they reach Ontario's farms. All efforts to import laborers have proved failures. Other and slower means are necessary to a satisfactory development of this wonderful contentment with country life and check the decline of the rural population is a matter of education. population is a matter of education.

To Further Agriculture.

The trend in Ontario is towards the most scientifie, and therefore the most in profitable methods of extensive furnaling. The progress that has been made along these lines by the growers in the Niagara Peninsula is remarkable. Yet was a go the average farm in that district was of 100 acres worth from $100 to $200 an acre. Now the average holding is 20 acres worth $1,000 an acre. The general adoption there of scientifie. noiding is 20 acres worth $1,000 an acre. The general adoption there of scientific methods has been brought about largely by the Niagara Fruit Growers' Association. It is an ifflustration of the benefits of co-operation, benefits that are also evidenced "byto the success of the several co-operation buying and selling associations on the district. Co-operation is wending a revolution in the operation is working a revolution in the marketing in different products in On-tario. The government encourages it and the midvament is certain of exten-tion and rethe operation among the fruit growent has been shown to encourage the light, methods of production; to encourage sconomy, intelligence, enterprise and honesty in the packing, grading and marketing of the fruit and to bring fruit products more directly to the consumer from the producer. The pioneer co-operative egg marketing organization in Ontario county is another pronounced success.

Utilizing Waste Products. Utilising Waste Products.

In Ottawa a mashine has been perfected to make shingles out of disearded tin came. After being rolled straight the can is put through a corrugating mashine. Then it is put through a weatherproofing process, and then into a vest containing a substance like tar. The tin, while still wet, is dipped in asbestoe which readily adheres to the far-like coating. Shingles so made are asid to be more flexible and lighter than the wood or corrugated steel articles, and they are produced in various colors. No nails are used in fastening them to roofs, the rolling process shaping them so that they are held in position by the corrugations.

co-operative egg marketing organization in Ontario county is another pronounced success.

The changes that are taking place in the rural life of the province are significant. There is greater interest taken in the Farmers' Clubs and a better attendance at the Women's Institute meetings. The government experts whose business it is to encourage the adoption of scientific methods are more appreciated. The great good work of the Ontario Agricultural College is better appreciated. Scientific knowledge in growing erops and raising live stock is more eagerly sought. The best methods of overcoming dry seasons and of preventing depletion of the soil's fercility are being followed. Low lands are gradually going under tile and the rields from them are being doubled.
Over 2,000 seres in Essex county alone has been tiled in the past year. Government representatives all over the province make free surveys to encourage the practice of tile under drainage and there is a growing appreciation of this method of doubling crep yields.

The big check on the farming instutry of Ontario is the incurable dearth of labor. The men engaged in the business of agriculture, that science which, Gibbons each the foundation of all manufacturers, are helpless in the competition with other employers of labor here.

Isn't a Great Deal of It. "We have hardly any crime in Ne Zealand," says an editor and lawyer who has lived many years in that country and who is now in the course of a trip around the world. "I attribute it to the strength of our laws and the law-abiding spirit of the people, for the most part. Then there is another deterrent. It is the surety with

"If a man hav committed a murder in New Zealand he does not lie in fail for a year fortwo, as I am informed sometimes happens in other countries. We make an effort to bury him within two weeks after sentence has been imposed. With us a man may do pretty much as he likes so long as he does not interfere with the rights or interests of anybody else. The moment he does he comes in contact with the law.

"I cannot think of a single case of murder in our country in the last 20 years in which the murderen has not been caught and hanged. We limited the severest penalties in every case. The rank of a man or his wealth are never in his favor in a count of law. It can precure film nothing except high-priced lawyer, perhaps. The excuse of insanity and the testimony of a corps of well-paid medical experts do not avail much. There is no appeal from the verdict of a court in a murder case, unless the judge himself thinks the verdict of the jury is against the evidence. Otherwise the conviction must stand.

EASTERN TRUST COMPAN Militant suffragists were sadly in Militant suffragists were sadly in need of an active worker and fighter when Lady Sybil Smith offered herself for the post. She is a daughter of Lord and Lady Antrim, and the wife of Mr. V. H. Smith, a partner of the big banking firm of Morgan, Grenfell & Co. Since fighting for "the vote" made a wreck of Lady Constance Lytton, sister of Lord Lytton, there was no titled woman to fight the police. It would be hard to find a greater enthusiast than Lady Constance's successor, who is very Irish, DIVIDEND No. 50.

But the poor old Earl of Antrim one of the old school, with the Irish Lood Wages man's horror of seeing any of his womenfolk in the public eye, has been frantic and declares that there ought to be a law by which a man can divorce a wife who is a suffragist. When Lady Sybil was recently arrested in the House of Commons with Mrs. Pethick Lawrence, she was more active in her resistance than any other prisoner and with her jewelled rings gave the policeman a mark that will be there for some time. She says that she is prepared to die for "the cause,"

Manuel, king of Portugal, from his affectionate aunt, Alexandra, and that the King and Queen sent a present very similarly historibed, caused much comment, that good many people are still contracting that Manuel should not be spenly styled King in a country that people are still contracting in a country that people are cited. The country that people is a country that provides the Portuguese Republic, and precedents are cited. The country that he may be seen as a problem of 1848, he and his wife lived quietly at Claremont as the Country and Countries De Neully. One of the newspapers goes so far as the say: "Perhaps Sir Edward Grey will oblige with a hint."

City Life Not Always Degenerating Life in a great city does not neces-sarily lead to physical degeneration. There died a London fish hawker There died a London fish hawker about four years ago who could frize his family back 200 years, and had never heard of any addition of country blood. He died within a few weeks of his golden wedding, and left 21 children, 71 grandshildren, and 20 great-grandshildren. None of the children married out of the London diviriet is which they lived, except a soldier son who emigrated. The old man piled his trade until within two days of his death, and "could pull his barrow twenty miles; he had sinews like a young 'un, and not a corn on his feet."

A Modern "Cromwell." A Modern "Cromwell."
Somebody has discovered on the electoral roll of the city of Melbourne, a gentleman named Oliver Cromwell, who by occupation is described as a "theatre packer." The duty of the "packer" is to squeeze as many people as possible into the pit and gallery. There have been complaints in Melbourne lately about his ungentlemethods and his unchivalrous handling of women. Must take after his namesake.
