THE KING CANNOT ACCEPT CANADA'S INVITATION

He Keenly Regrets His Inability to Visit the Dominion,
But He Could Not Come Without Visiting Other
Colonies, and His Work Forbids Long Absence.

OTTAWA, July 17.—The King will not visit Canada. A message has been received expressing the pleasure of the King in receiving the invitation and regretting his inability to accept it. The message is as follows:

Downing street, 7th July.
My Lord—As requested in your lordship's despatch of 25th May, I have submitted to His Majesty the joint address to the King from the senate and house of commons of Canada expressing their loyalty and devotion to His Majesty and praying that His Majesty and her Majesty the Queen will be graciously pleased to visit the dominion.

His Majesty has been pleased to receive the address very graciously. I need scarcely remind your lordship of two circumstances which must not be overlooked in consideration of these proposals. In the first place the current business of the empire, which is continuous and incessant, imposes a heavy tax on the time and strength of its sovereign, and it is well known that the absence of His Majesty from this country for any length of time is difficult, if not impossible, except under very definite limitations and restrictions—even when consideration of health and need for comparative rest render it expedient.

In the second place it must be remembered that there are practically no limits within the habitable globe, to the distances which must be travelled to reach all parts of the British empire, and that it would be difficult for the king to visit one important part of his dominions and decline to visit another. It was no doubt these two facts which influenced her late majesty, Queen Victoria, with wise foresight, to determine that her eldest son should, in his youth, visit the various colonies and possessions of the empire of which he was one day to become ruler; and accordingly his majesty, while Prince of Wales, paid a visit to Canada, to

ACTRESSES MAKE AND SELL AUTO HATS

LONDON, July 16.—The chief attraction at the bazaar in aid of the funds of the Great Northern hospital, opened by Princess Christian at the Albert hall yesterday, was the hat and tulle stall presided over by Mrs. Beorborn Tree and Mrs. George Alexander and a host of other pretty actresses, by whom most of the hats on sale were designed and made.

Miss Ellen Terry's hat had the place of honor in the centre of the stall. It was similar in shape and size to those she herself wears on the stage—a tulle, trimmed with a cream lace veil and a touch of pink.

When Princess Christian visited the stall she was induced by Mrs. Beorborn Tree and Miss Marion Terry to purchase two hats. They were dainty creations in mauve. The Princess favored shade, and had been made by Miss Marion Terry and Miss Charlotte Granville.

Miss Viola Tree wore a tulle cap of green, trimmed with large clusters of grapes. She was trying to dispose of similar confections to an admiring circle. "Just the right thing to wear at matinees," she declared.

Miss Editha Morris had sent a tiny Dutch bonnet of needlework, with blue bows and strings, that would have been suitable for Miss Ellen Terry. There was a large sale of cotton sunbonnets contrived by Mrs. Beorborn Tree, which were bought at $2 each. Among those other buying or selling in the hall were Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein, Lady Langhorne, in pale green; the Countess of Lytton, in white, with a black hat; Lady de Tintinn, Lady Cunliffe, Lady Constance Combe, the Countess of Wemyss and Lady Marjorie Manners.

REFUSES SOLID FOOD. AND LIVES ON MILK

CARDIFF, July 15.—There is a boy living at Penarth, Glamorganshire, who has existed entirely on milk since his birth, six years ago.

His name is Arthur Keene. He lives with his mother and father, and he is one of four children.

He will not take anything but milk. The choicest morsels of food have been offered him, but he refuses to be coaxed away from his milk diet.

On one occasion his mother forced food down his throat, but it made him ill at once, and he asked for milk. His diet each week consists of thirty pints of milk mixed with sugar and water, which is by no means an excessive quantity for even a twelve-month-old infant.

Yet in spite of this scanty and monotonous diet, the boy is fully developed, of normal size and of good weight. He is inclined to be a bit rosy, and is rather nervous. He attends Penarth Council school, and is of a most cheerful disposition.

He has puzzled the doctors of Penarth. They have carefully examined him, and they confess that the case baffles them completely.

One doctor saw him last Sunday, and expressed the opinion that it was exceptional that the boy should be so well after living solely on milk for six years.

GOVERNMENT DECIDES STANLEY MUST HANG

OTTAWA, Ont., July 17.—Gordon Byrnes, the 10-year old son of John Byrnes, of the trade and commerce department, was drowned in the Rideau river yesterday.

J. L. McDougall, ex-auditor general, who was stricken with paralysis while working upon the city of Quebec accounts, was brought back to Ottawa today. He is a little better.

George Stanley, who killed Francis Harvey at Ellersliehouse, Hants county, N. S., on February 2, is to hang on August 1. The government has decided not to interfere to prevent the law taking its course.

FORMER ST. JOHN MAN SHOT BY HIS SON

Capt. Reynold, the Victim of the Shooting, Lies in a Very Dangerous Condition—Graphic Story of the Painful Affair Told New York Herald by Mrs.
Reynold

The New York Herald contains an account of the shooting of Capt. Samuel Reynold, formerly of this city, by his sixteen-year-old son. Captain Reynold is a native of Salmon River and is about sixty-two years of age. He was for a long time engaged on the coasting trade between Salmon River and this city, being engaged by Davidsons in their lumber trade. He was at that time living on Waterloo street. His wife is an active of Prince Edward Island.

About twenty years ago the family moved to New York, where Capt. Reynold was engaged until quite lately as a shipping broker. Capt. and Mrs. Reynold had three children. The second daughter is ill and the doctors say that she is suffering from a malady which will kill her in less than a month. The Herald's story of the tragedy reads as follows:

"In the tiny cabin of the speck-and-spark little bark Reynard, at the foot of Conover street, Brooklyn, a small, gray-haired woman sat today, crying here and there. Here is the story she told:

"Yes, I suppose I'm the woman you gentlemen are looking for, although my heart is too heavy for words. I am the wife of the master of this little bark. Capt. Samuel Reynold, who's at the hospital, shot in the breast. My boy George, who's run away, did the shooting, but, oh, gentlemen, it wasn't George's fault—he'd rather had his hand cut off than harm his father. It was the drink that did it all—the drink and the grieving for our older daughter, Ellen, her that's dead."

"We're in the coconut trade, and we've always been mighty happy. This boat was the only home we knew, but it suited all of us. Usually we plied between Mobile and Cuban ports, but this last trip we brought a cargo to New York. A sorry trip it was for us all, too!

"On the way up Ellen, the oldest, took ill with spinal meningitis. I did what I could for her, with nursing and hot cloths and the like of that, but there were no medicines aboard and she suffered terribly. We were all near away."

"The stricken woman held up a little, battered typewriter, all scratched and dented. The doctors at the hospital, when he was shot, said she was in a very bad way. She said she was in a very bad way. She said she was in a very bad way."

"The wounded captain is in the Long Island College Hospital, where Dr. Harris, an ambulance surgeon, took him after the shooting. The bullet lodged in the tough muscles of Reynold's chest. He is not seriously hurt, but probably the son, who ran away, doesn't know that. Nobody has seen him since he scuttled up the side of Burton's drydock and fled into the shadows of Conover street."

REPORTS FROM THE G.T.P. RE-SURVEY N.B. COMING IN

Two of the Eight Parties Engaged in this Province
Have Submitted Returns—Arrangements for the Terminals at Winnipeg Nearing Completion.

OTTAWA, July 17.—Two of the eight parties engaged in the resurvey of the two routes for the National Transcontinental through New Brunswick have reported, and the others are expected to turn in the results of their field work within a few days. It will take some time for the engineers to reduce their field notes to a statement of quantities and estimates of the cost so that a choice can be made between the river route and the back route. It is expected that late in September or early in October the commissioners will be in a position to recommend to the government the letting of the contract on one of the routes. About the same time it is probable tenders will be invited for the construction on another section of the line between Winnipeg and Quebec. This will be to the north of Lake Superior, where the facilities for getting the supplies in are considered fairly good. The arrangements for the Winnipeg terminals of the national transcontinental, the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern are likely to be completed within a short time. Commissioner Young of the National Transcontinental commission has gone to Winnipeg and Chief Engineer Lusden will leave for there on Friday. General Manager Morse of the Grand Trunk Pacific will start for there about the same time. The Canadian Northern will have a representative on the spot with authority to make an agreement. As these terminals will involve an outlay of several million dollars the arrangement is regarded as a most important one by all the parties. The Canadian Northern owns some land and has the lease from the Hudson Bay Company of more which it proposes to use as the site of a depot and for terminals. It offered to let the National Transcontinental and the Grand Trunk Pacific in on a union terminal arrangement. The transcontinental commissioners were not altogether satisfied with the terms offered and decidedly objected to the title of a portion of the site remaining with the Hudson Bay Company. It is hoped that these difficulties will be cleared up at the coming conference. However, before the commissioners come to a final understanding as to the recommendation they will make to the government, they will have a full meeting in Winnipeg, where they will inspect the ground.

YACHT CLUB FLEET AT FREDERICTON

Four Crews Will Engage in a Game of Baseball Today—Sail This Afternoon

FREDERICTON, July 17.—The full yachting squadron arrived here at ten o'clock today and anchored opposite St. John yesterday morning. Col. McLean, Col. Armstrong and Judge spending a pleasant evening in the city. McLeod, who were on the Dahinda and the bank of the river presents a shave also gone back to St. John.

The fleet spent last night at Margerville, with the exception of the yachts Louisa, Winona and Acadia which reached here last night. The Hermes II, of Yarmouth, did not come beyond Margerville. She draws so much water that it was not thought advisable to attempt to reach Fredericton.

At 2 o'clock tomorrow the fleet will leave for the Washademoak. In the morning a game of baseball will be played between the members of the crews of the yachts Winona and Stormy Petrel and the Rose and Kelpie.

The steam yacht Drows returned to St. John yesterday morning. Col. McLean, Col. Armstrong and Judge spending a pleasant evening in the city. McLeod, who were on the Dahinda and the bank of the river presents a shave also gone back to St. John.

ROBBERY ON THE WEST SIDE

The home of Robert Craft, who lives on Princess street, west end, was entered yesterday afternoon and the sum of fifty-nine dollars stolen. Mr. Craft and his family were absent at the time, and the robbery must have been committed by persons well acquainted with the house and movements of the family, as the money was in a box in an upstairs room, and the family are seldom all away at one time.

A couple of young fellows who loaf around Water street are suspected of the crime, as they were often seen about the place, doubtless being aware of the money and waiting their opportunity to get at it. Since the robbery these young men have been missing from their usual haunts, and the police are keeping a strict look out for them.

Besides the two who are chiefly under suspicion there are a number of others who are coming in for a share of attention from the officers, who expect to make an arrest very soon.

The money which was stolen belonged to Mr. Craft's daughter, who had saved it in anticipation of her wedding, which is to take place next month.

The strawberry social held at the Chipman house last evening under the auspices of the ladies' auxiliary of the Seamen's Institute was a successful affair, a large number being in attendance. Those contributing to the programme were the Misses Lynch, Miss Hogan, Miss Hamilton, Mr. Rogers, Mrs. Kisan and Miss Greaney.

POLLARD OPERA CO. IS COMING AGAIN

Manager Armstrong, of the York, Has Secured This Clever Troupe of Children for Provinces

Manager Armstrong, of the York Theatre, announces that he has secured the Pollard Opera Co. for a return engagement at the York Theatre on or about the first of September. People who heard the diminutive prodigies when they were here last year, will learn with great pleasure that they are coming here again. At present the company is playing to crowded houses in Winnipeg, and wherever they have played return engagements have troubled their business. They are now rehearsing two new operas, which will be ready for presentation when they arrive here. The principals in the company are all the same, on the occasion of their former visit, but six new children which were recently brought from Australia by Manager Pollard will be in the company. The company will be booked throughout the Maritime Provinces by Manager Armstrong.

HALIFAX MERCHANT IN MONTREAL JAIL

MONTREAL, July 17.—Max Jacques Orntstein, the Halifax merchant who was recently brought to this city on the charge of attempting to defraud his creditors, appeared for preliminary trial today, but the case was put until Tuesday next so that Judge Desnoyers could take the case and finish it before his vacation. As Orntstein was leaving court with his friends he was served with two capias at the instance of Mathews & Tovers and H. Vincberg & Co., who took these steps so that they would not be deprived of their recourse. The benefit insisted on having real estate as security for the $10,000 bail required, and as Orntstein's friends had not required security the accused was committed to jail.

BUSY TIME FOR LORD STRATHCONA

LONDON, July 17.—Lord Strathcona had hardly said good-bye to the last of his thousand guests at Knobworth on Saturday, at the close of the most exacting week of Anglo-Canadian season before he himself started to travel all night to Glasgow. Arriving there Sunday morning he embarked in his own yacht for his island colony, where land and building schemes awaited his inspection. He will probably return to London tonight.
