INDIAN PICTURE AND BIOGRAPH AT NICKEL.

ORPHEUM.

The Orpheum is to the front this week with an attraction of extraordinary merit and variety. It is the celebrated Barbeau Family of ten people, six adults and four clever children, who are not only a whole brass band in themselves, but have an endiess variety of high-class vaudeville turns. In singing, dancing, and musical selections the Barbeaus have won reputations as entertainers from coast to coast, and their engagement at the Orpheum represents the most expensive act yet engaged in motion picture vaudeville. The Barbeau Family will arrive in the city early, and give their first entertainment at the matinee today. As this big act will doubtless draw immence audiences, it will be well for patrons to attend early and avoid the regular Monday evening rush.

THE GRAND FANCY DRESS CAR- WORLD NEARING AN END NIVAL TO-NIGHT.

Many hundred spectators will be attracted to the Victoria this evening to see what is sure to be a pretty and novel sight. There has been a heavy run on the costumers in the city, and a large variety of designs in dress may be expected on the ice, as much pains have been taken by the contestants to present a good appearance. To the best combination the prize of ten dollars will be given, and four five-dollar prizes will be given for handsome and original costumes. The band has been augmented, and altogether over thirty first-class musicians will take their place in the bandstand. Thus a delightful evening of skating is assured, and with the ice in ideal condition nothing can be desired to make this evening the red letter night of the skating season. Band propramme will begin at eight o'clock sharp.

LATOUR CHAMPIONSHIP RACES

WEDNESDAY NIGHT. AGE OF ELEVEN YEARS

Much interest is being taken in the first ice sports that have been given under the auspices of the Latour Rowing Association. The entry list, which will be published to-morrow, contains the names of all the fast skaters in the city. The half-mile race will doubtless be one of the best-contested events of the season, and Fred Logan is going after a rink record.
