REMARKABLE SUCCESS
Of a New Catarrh Care.

A large and constantly increasing majorism of the American people are catarrh sufferers. This is not entirely the result of our changeable climate, but because modern investigation has clearly proven that many diseases, known by other names, are really catarrh. Formerly the name satarrh was applied almost exclusively to the common nasal catarrh, but the throat, stomach, liver, bladder, kidneys and intentines are subject to catarrhal diseases as well as the nasal passages.

In fact, wherever there is mucous membrane there is a feeding ground for catarrh. The usual remedies, inhalers, sprays, douches or powders, have been practically failures, as far as anything more than temporary relief was concerned, because they simply dry up the mucous secretions without having the remotest effect upon without having the remotest effect upon the blood and liver, which are the real sources of catarrhal diseases.

It has been known for some years that the radical cure of catarrh could never come from local applications, but from an internal remedy, acting on the blood and expelling the catarrhal poison from the system.

internal remedy, acting on the blood and expelling the catarrhal poloson from the system.

A new internal preparation which has been on the market only a short time, has met with remarkable success as a genuine, radical cure for estarrh.

It may be found in any drug store, sold under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tableta, large pleasant tasting losenges, composed principally of antiseptic lugredients, fucallysici, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria, Hydrastin and similar catarrh specifics.

Dr. Ainslee in speaking of the new catarrh cure says: "I have tried the new catarrh remedy, Stuart's Catarrh Tableta, up-on thirty or forty patients with remarkable antisfactory results. They clear the head and throat more effectually and lastingly than any douche or inhaler that I have ever seen, and although they are what is called a patent medicine and sold by druggists, I do not hesitate to recommend them as I know them to be free from creaine and oplates, and that even a little child may use them with entire safety."

Any sufferer from nasal catarrh, throat or bronchial trouble, catarrh of the stomach, liver or bladder will find Stuart's Catarrh Tablets remarkably effective, pleasant and convenient, and your druggist will tell you they are absolutely from any injurious drug.

So, o.o. The new steamer will require to be ready ten months after date of contract. Chicago Tribune: A Philadelphia woman, holding two hundred shares of Northern Pacific stock as an investment, was suddenly advised by a broker during the recent panic to sell. She assented and he remitted a profit of $100,000. Having r. flected, however, that she had domenuting to merit this sum, and that it represented a speculative lose of some other person, she returned the check to her broker at the bidding of conscience as something not rightfully hers. Was the set one of belated sentimentality or of prophetic preception? Roonomic destiny will have more to do with the future of speculation than will the direct play of conscience. The Philadelphia woman's scruples, however, raise a challenge which no sophistry can altogether silence, and upon which the trend of events puts a mark of promises. Roonomic destiny may siftore this verdict of conscience concerning present day speculation.

"He heapeth up riches, and knowth not who shall gather them," says the inspired writer. All the wealth of the nation, it is said, passes through the probate court once in thirty-five years. Man's grasp upon the world, be his hand large or small, is soon loosened. Where no laws of entail interfere, there is practically a readjustment of all properties three times in each century. Corporatious may be long-lived, but the stock is shuffled and passed to new hands constantly. So far as we can-recall at this moment, there is not a millionaire descendant in this country of the millionaire families of the Revolution. In America, at least, "it is only three generations from shirt elsewes back to shirt sleeves."
