THIS DATE IN RING ANNALS

July 31.
1907—Jimmy Britt defeated Battling Nelson in 20 rounds at San Francisco. This was the third meeting between the prominent author and the distinguished actor. In 1904 the "native son" defeated the Dane in 40 rounds, but in 1906 Nelson knocked out Britt in the 18th round. Nelson thought Britt was easy and didn't train properly for the third bout, else the result might have been different. However, he was not.

1912—"Gambol" Smith knocked out Andy Morris in 2nd round at New York.

1912—"One Round" Moran defeated Tommy McFarland in 15 rounds at San Francisco.

1912—Joe Mandot defeated Leo Roux and Bobby Robinson, 4 rounds each, at Memphis.

WARREN WOOD IS WESTERN GOLF CHAMPION

WARREN K. WOOD, WINNER.
EDWARD D. ALLIS, JR., RUNNER UP.

Warren K. Wood has finally broken his long spell of ill luck in important golf tournaments by winning the Western amateur championship. Over his home links at Houston today by the score of 3 and 2, he defeated Edward P. Allis, Jr., of Milwaukee, by 4 up and 3 to play in the final of the annual tournament. As long ago as 1906 Mr. Wood was in the final round. He lost then by the old hole in a thirty-seven hole match, and last year he again reached the final, only to lose to Charles Evans, Jr., by one hole. Mr. Wood reached the final round of the national championship at Brookline in 1910, and last year, at Wheaton, Ill., he was defeated in the semi-final by Mr. Evans.

MARATHONS TRIM BANGOR; ST. CROIX WAS SHUT OUT

MARATHONS, 3; BANGOR, 2.

Bangor, Me., July 30.—St. John won from Bangor today by the score of 3 and 2. Both teams worked new pitchers, and the home boy had the better of the battle and should have won out. Bad errors by Connaughton and Tewhey gave the visitors two of their runs. Williams, the new youngster, pitched a gem, and the home team, backed by fine support, and this is what won for him.

Both sides went out in order in the first. In the second, after Pease had fanned, Blen hit to Connaughton, and he let the ball go through him. It should have been an error, but Connaughton sent him to second on a sacrifice. Riley singled, scoring Blen, and took second on an error by Wakefield. Ramsey hit to Tewhey, who booted the ball and Riley scored. These errors by Connaughton and Tewhey are what lost the game for the home team. After this inning, although there were four more errors, they did not prove to be very costly.

If the home team could do nothing with Williams, there was a mixup in the fifth. Tewhey worked for a pass. Wakefield sacrificed but the ball was fouled slow. On the throw over to Shankey the ball got away from him and Tewhey went to third and Wakefield to second. The umpire, after much wrangling, sent both runners back. This may cause a protest on the part of the Bangor management, as both runners were entitled to third and second. The umpire claimed that the ground rules would not allow it. St. John pushed one more across in the sixth on a single and an error by Connaughton.

The home team scored in the eighth, and ninth by hitting out his way. Reed connected in the eighth and Dolan in the ninth, after two strikes had been called on him. It looked as if the home team was going to win the ninth, but after Dolan hit a home run, and Tewhey singled there was nothing doing. The box score and summary follows:

FREDERICTON, 3; ST. CROIX, 0.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, July 30.—Fredericton shut the St. Croix team out today and placed again largely as a result of the good pitching of Jack Dedrich, the former member of the Marathon hurling staff. The Pets scored three runs and might have had a few more, but for some weird base running in the seventh inning when three hits failed to produce a single tally. Bob

Canley signaled his return to the game by a phenom. 4-1 hit off Jacobson in the ninth inning which ended the game. The home team, however, was not to be slow, big curves mixed up with an occasional fast one, but he was hit hard in spots and was lucky to get off with only three rallies made off him. In the fourth inning he was struck on the leg by a line drive off Bob Ganey's bat and for a time it was feared that he was badly hurt.

Fielding features were contributed by Pat Dugan, Hank Callahan and Red Wildes, the latter being in his old place at shortstop for the Pets. infielder Nolan has been released.

AUSTRALIANS
SHOW YANKS
HOW TO PLAY

Providence, July 30.—The Rhode Island and cricket players learned some of the fine points of the game today from the world champion Australian team, who played six men against Rhode Island's 21 and won by a score of 254 to 129. Today's game was the second of two, the first having been played yesterday.

The local players were unable to hit the Australian bowlers, while the champions succeeded almost at will. McCarmey, of the visitors alone made 16 runs. The Australians will play in New York on Friday and Saturday.

RUBE BENTON
WON'T RECEIVE ANY MONEY

Cincinnati, July 30.—President Herrmann, of the Cincinnati baseball team, said today that Rube Benton, who was seriously injured when his motor cycle collided with a street car, would not be allowed one penny of his salary, and that the club would not stand any expense while he is at the hospital. Mr. Herrmann said that he had repeatedly requested Benton not to ride his cycle.

"The whole affair is an injustice to the club," said Mr. Herrmann. "The injury to Benton means that we will have to get a pitcher or two, and just now good pitchers are hard to get."

BRENNEN KNOCKED OUT.
Crabbrook, N. C., July 30.—Joe Uvanti knocked out Jim Brennan, of Toronto, in the sixth round of a scheduled fifteen round bout yesterday.

$3,000,000
WENT TO 1912
HAR. RACERS

The popularity of harness racing in America can easily be calculated by the most casual observer when the following statistics, recently compiled, are dissected: In 1912 there were 1,337 meetings in the United States and Canada, at which $2,999,636 were distributed in purses. There was harness racing in every state in the Union, Ohio leading the procession with 115 meetings at 95 different tracks, and distributing purses which totalled $380,000. New York came second in the list with 94 meetings, where $212,000 in purses went to the winners. The number of meetings in the Empire state was greater than ever before, notwithstanding the ban against betting. Pennsylvania, Missouri, West Virginia and other states each showed an increase in the number of meetings held.

If the statement is allowed that few if any of this vast number of meetings were conducted at a financial loss, it means that more people than ever before in the history of the country attended harness meetings last year. The same statistician who compiled the above figures above has the opinion that 1913 will show a further increase in both attendance and the amount of money distributed.

ST. STEPHEN TROT AND PACE MEET

St. Stephen, July 30.—For the big Charlotte County Fair in September 12, the management of the society announces the following trotting events:

2:27 trot and pace; 2:22 trot and 2:25 pace; 2:17 trot and 2:20 pace; 2:15 trot and 2:18 pace; 2:13 trot and 2:16 pace; 2:09 trot and 2:12 pace. The purse in each of these events is $250. An added feature is a team race, two horses, trot and pace, open to all, for a purse of $250.

Lawrence Doyle's career is proof that even the humblest of Americans can attain to greatness and fortune. He was born at Caseyville, Ill., July 31, 1886, and in his youth was a coal miner. In his hours of leisure above ground he played ball, mostly with teams composed of fellow miners. He was nineteen when he was signed to play with the Mattson club in the Kentucky-Illinois-Tennessee League. He soon went higher, and in 1906 with the Springfield, Ill., team of the Three-Circuit. His sensational work attracted the attention of the big league scouts, and Larry was put on the block. There was spirited bidding for his services, and he was eventually knocked down to the New York Giants for $4,500. He joined the New Yorks in the middle of the 1907 season, and McGraw put him on the second base.

Although Larry, although Doyle had played principally at third for Springfield and Mattson. The future captain made his big league bow in a game at Pittsburgh and got a hit off Leifield. The Giants won the game by a score of 2 to 0.

Larry didn't do so very well for New York in 1907, as his batting average was only .260, and a lot of New York fans got out their hammers and began knocking. McGraw paid no attention to the knockers, and his faith in the coal digger was fully justified in 1908, as Doyle swatted the pill for 208 and finished third in fielding in the league. In 1909 he was even more useful to the Giants, and in 1910, although his batting average dropped to .288, he played great ball. In 1911 he batted .310, and last year played with Meriden, Worcester, Sacramento, Milwaukee, Williamsport, Lincoln, Minneapolis and the New York, Boston and Washington American League teams. This year he has played the management of the Minneapolis Northern League club.

Bob Unger, former big league first baseman, was born in Baltimore thirty-two years ago today. He has played with Meriden, Worcester, Sacramento, Milwaukee, Williamsport, Lincoln, Minneapolis and the New York, Boston and Washington American League teams.
