SAVE YOUR EYES

Attend To Your Eyes

Now—Before Christmas

True, their condition may be that you can get along quite well for the few weeks remaining until Christmas, but why during that time put up with the bother and inconvenience of not being able to see distinctly.

For both business and pleasure you want the best sight you can have—and properly fitted glasses will give it to you.

It will not be so agreeable to you to come in for glasses when the store is crowded with buyers. You escape the crowds now. Come get

THE COUGH

WITH THAT

TICKLING SENSATION

A little tickling in the throat; now and then a dry hacking cough; you think it is not bad enough to bother about, but every hack makes a breach in the system, strains the lungs and prepares the way for more serious trouble.

How many people have lost a good night's rest by that nasty, tickling, irritating sensation in the throat? The dry, harsh cough keeps you awake, and when you get up in the morning you feel as if you had had no rest at all.

DR. WOOD'S

NORWAY PINE SYRUP

is just the remedy you require to stop that irritating, tickling cough on so many of the soothing, healing and expectorant properties.

Mrs. P. Johnson, Post Abroad, B. C.

writes:—“I have suffered for years and on, with a tickling cough. I could not sleep nights and had to sit up in bed to get relief. In fact, I coughed so I used to vomit. I tried different doctors' prescriptions until

I heard of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine

Syrup. I tried it and found great relief after I had taken the first bottle and have not been troubled since. I shall always keep it in the house.”

Be sure and get “Dr. Wood's” when you ask for it. Price, 50c. and 80c.

Cases Dealt With

In Police Court

Evidence Heard in Liquor

Case Against Wm. Bell—

Juvenile Cases Heard.

A case against William Bell, charged with selling liquor Nov. 30, in his beer shop, Union street, was taken up in the police court yesterday afternoon.

William Crawford stated he was in the defendant's place of business at the time in question and saw Inspector Headbourne trying to get in. He did not see anybody under the influence of liquor, although there were some four or five men present. The man behind the counter, he said, went to the door and let the inspector in.

Crawford said he had also been in the shop in the morning, but on neither occasion got any intoxicating liquor. He would not swear Northrup was under the influence.

Percy Northrup, taxi driver and restaurantier, said he saw Inspector Headbourne come to the defendant's shop but could not swear the inspector was kept waiting before he was let in.

He said he went in to get a drink of ginger beer and had two glasses of it with a friend with whom he was talking business. All in the shop appeared sober to him.

W. M. Ryan, who appeared for the prohibition authorities, stated a summons had been issued for two other men, but that neither were in court.

Magistrate Ritchie stated he had received a letter explaining the absence of one of the men. The case was posted to Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and the defendant let out on a deposit. M. S. Ritchie for the defense.

A juvenile charged with theft of a revolver from the store of the late Louis Green was allowed to go on condition he return the revolver.

Alfred Power, charged with throwing snowballs at Joseph Zechman, said the latter had called him indecent names. He was allowed to go.

Edward Bishara, charged with allowing his horse to stand on King street without a foot strap, denied being on King street with his horse at the time in question. He was corroborated by Laurie Sprague. Officer Belie testified against the defendant.

The case is to be resumed this afternoon.

Others Relieved—

Why Not You?

Catarh Does Harm—Get Rid of It.

Catarh of the nose or throat when it becomes chronic weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and may lead to consumption. It impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice. It is a constitutional disease and requires a constitutional remedy.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by purifying the blood removes the cause of the disease and gives permanent relief. This alternative and tonic medicine has proved entirely satisfactory to thousands of families in three generations.

If there is biliousness or constipation, take Hood's Pills—they are purely vegetable, gentle, thorough.

Weddings

Jones-Bestway.

A wedding of much interest was solemnized in St. Luke's Church yesterday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock when the Rector, Rev. R. P. McKim, united in marriage Miss Blanche H. Bestway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Best-way, and Sidney M. Jones, manager of the Nashua Pulp & Paper Company.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by Miss Marion Murchie of Calais, Me. The groom was supported by Jas. M. Eaton, of Holyoke, Mass., a former college chum of the groom. The ushers were Allan C. Bestway, brother of the bride, and Chester Gandy.

During the service Willard A. Smith sang, "Oh Perfect Love," and other songs. The church was artistically decorated with chrysanthemums, palms and cut flowers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 222 Douglas avenue, after which Mr. and Mrs. Jones left on a honeymoon trip to cities in the United States. On their return they will resides in Barre, Vermont.

Thompson-Purdy.

The Carleton Methodist church parsonage, 138 Guilford street, West St.

John, was the scene of an interesting event last evening at 7.30, when William J. S. Thompson, of this city, and Edith Mabel Purdy, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. George Purdy, were united in marriage by Rev. J. Heaney, B. A., in the presence of immediate relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a suit of navy blue tricot with hat to match. The wedding presents were many and useful. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful rug and coat. The groom is in the employ of the C. P. R., and the bride-was for some time bookkeeper for the firm of T. Donovan & Sons. They will reside at 247 St. George street, West

St. John.
