NOMINATION PAPERS OF MEN CONTESTING THE CITY AND COUNTY FILED YESTERDAY

No Speech-making Here and Proceedings Were Brief—The Standard's Attempt to Deceive Regarding the Situation in Northumberland.

Friday, June 14. Nomination papers were filed yesterday at the court house for four candidates for the city of St. John and two candidates for the county of St. John for both the government and opposition parties. In every other constituency in the province nomination papers were also filed and the line-up is now officially determined.

In the City. The opposition candidates for the city were nominated by: John E. Moore, J. Fraser Gregory, A. W. Adams, W. A. Lockhart, A. O. Skinner, Alexander Macaulay, W. J. Magee, John Keefe, A. M. Rowan, Geo. E. Day, W. G. Scott, John A. McAvity, W. T. Hayes, W. R. Vase, T. H. Eatabrooks, W. F. Roberts, James H. Duddy, Thomas Gorman, James J. Russell, J. R. Craigie, H. P. Robinson, G. Herbert Green, A. S. Connor, D. J. Brown, D. J. Ruck, and hundreds of others.

The government candidates for the city were nominated by: John B. Baxter and Warden Thomas B. Baxter, the government candidates in the county were nominated by William A. Quinlan, James W. V. Lawlor, John Joyce, Daniel Donohue, William Fox, Councilor James Bryant, Councilor Wm. Golding and Patrick McMurray, parish of Lancaster; W. Walter Dean, Lorneville; Councilor William J. Dean, Councilor James K. O'Connell, parish of Moncton; Robert Connelly, Salmon River; Robert Carson, Judson P. Mosher, Manford Scholes, Coun. Wm. Smith, parish of St. Martins; Councilor Harry Shillington and Fred Stephenson, Alex. Willis, William B. Tennant, John McDonald, Jr., parish of Simonds, and others.

Northumberland Opposition. The Standard yesterday morning published a list of the candidates nominated in the different constituencies in the province, but left out of the opposition the names of the men chosen to oppose the government in Northumberland county. In fact, it designated them as independent candidates supporting the government.

Chicago, June 13—Eight delegates for Col. Roosevelt and eight for President Taft marked the day's gains of the two chief rivals for the Republican presidential nomination for the decision of contest cases by the Republican national committee.

It was a day of Roosevelt victories, but victories achieved with the full acquiescence of the Taft majority on the national committee. Missouri's contest, which threatened another battle between the Taft and Roosevelt factions in which the lines would be closely drawn, were completely resolved to the satisfaction of both parties.

Senator Dixon, campaign manager for Col. Roosevelt, charged that a member of the Republican national committee had been offered a United States marshaling if he would vote for Taft on the contest under consideration.

Senator Dixon directed the Taft managers to specify and give the name of the Roosevelt leader who had offered a bribe to a delegate in Alabama and the name of the man who received the money.

It was reported that the Taft managers have under consideration the introduction of a resolution in the convention requiring a resolution to be reported to have passed by the candidate. Taft leaders were expected to contest the credentials committee by a vote of 32 to 21.

PREMIER FLEMING IN DANGER OF DEFEAT

(Continued from page 1.) pent some time dealing with the question of bridges and the amount he and his colleagues had been able to obtain for Albert county for this purpose. A good deal of the burden of his song was the "Old government."

Mr. Carvath dealt quite a blow in connection with the promise of the government, who had stated they would do public work out to tender, when he showed that out of a sum of $22,000 expended in Albert county, $10,000 was expended in day's work.

Mr. Copp, the popular leader of the opposition, was received with great applause. The speaker dealt in a forcible manner with present government's handling of the public funds and management of the provincial lands which was sending towards the people a large asset. He referred to the auditor general's report and the disposition of the government to hide matters and describe the situation at the junction with no unflattering allusions.

Mr. Copp also dealt in a telling manner with the government's railway and agricultural policy and closed his fine speech amid flattering applause.

F. M. Sprout followed and took the old government as a base for his attack on the government's policy. He spoke briefly to a handful of electors. The speaker making occupied no more than a quarter of an hour.

The opposition campaign in this county is well under way but is not accompanied by any flourish of trumpets. The government party in York county view that the acts of the present administration have estranged many who voted for the Liberal party in 1908 and are working in anticipation of a hard fight and the opposition forces expect to give them that.

The condition of the highways in all parts of the county was never worse and that on that account former voters in all parts of the constituency will go strongly in favor of the opposition candidates.

George W. Kimball and Milton A. Smith Will Give the Tory Candidates a Hard Battle.

Oromocto, June 13.—(Special)—George W. Kimball, farmer of Oromocto, and Milton A. Smith, farmer of Blissville, and we are for election that morning and received the nominations of George H. King and I. W. Carpenter as opposition candidates, and A. R. Shipp and W. Woods as government candidates.

There are few farmers who can handle public questions like Mr. Carpenter when he gets on the platform and he was at the meeting today along with a smooth-tongued lawyer from Fredericton who has given the county but indifferent service since he was elected as one of the representatives of the county in 1908.

IS FULL OF FIGHT

Issues Manifesto to the Electors Scoring Government for Its Crown Land Policy, and Giving Out Public Works Without Tender—Little Comfort for Flemming or Morrissy in the Severe Indictment of the "Independents."

The following manifesto from the Independent ticket in Northumberland appears in the Conservative Chatham World. If Mr. Flemming and Mr. Morrissy can extract any comfort from it they are welcome.

TO THE ELECTORS OF NORTHUMBERLAND. The people of this county have not had a fair opportunity until now to express their opinion of the deal that gave the candidate of the opposition convention the government's support.

Mr. Swin was nominated by the supporters of the government, and the chief commissioner used the government influence to defeat him and elect the opposition candidate.

That was an insult that no self-respecting Conservative can condone. It was a display of one-man boss rule that every self-respecting elector ought to rebuke.

The people did not elect Mr. Morrissy to rule over them, and choose representatives for them.

But, instead of calling a convention, he selected one of the "lumber lords" he used to assail, and put him up for election. He did this without consulting his colleagues in the county.

And then, when this gentleman retired, the chief commissioner urged Mr. Burchill, whom he had denounced as one of the "lumber lords" to accept a nomination from the Liberal convention and promised him the government support.

Mr. Burchill made no advance to him, but volunteered the statement that he would, if elected, sit as an Independent Liberal, a promise that he kept in the house.

Northumberland was disgraced by the foolish proceeding. The county was laughed at. It is still remembered to our discredit.

We will, if elected, support the government so long as its measures commend themselves to us as being in the best interests of the province, and we will support the land-grabbing lumber kings, against whom the people of this county have struggled so long for a share of the public domain, as long as they are in the interest of the province.

W. J. CARVATH, For Albert County.

S. H. FLEWELLING, For Kings County.

I. N. KILLAM, For Westmorland Co.

J. P. BYRNE, For Gloucester Co.

WALTER LIMERICK, For York County.

TEN CANDIDATES IN WESTMORLAND

Tories at Loggerheads, Try at Last Minute to Down Price, the Party Choice.

Special to The Telegraph. Moncton, June 13.—The official nominations for Moncton city and Westmorland county took place today at Dorchester.

A. B. Copp, provincial opposition leader; C. M. Leger, Fred Magee and I. N. Killam are the standard bearers of the Liberal party in the county.

Mr. Stewart places the names of himself and colleagues in the opposition column.

Mr. Stewart captured the nomination of the Conservative party in the county, but he was bitterly fought by influential members of his party.

Efforts to restore harmony proved futile and when F. W. Sumner, who has been in Montreal for some weeks recovering from a serious illness, returned home this week his friends got busy and he was reported about town Wednesday evening and this morning that Sumner would be nominated.

There was a good attendance at the nomination proceedings today, notwithstanding the fact that the weather was very hot.

With the Conservatives divided in the county and the government nominees in the county forced to offer apologies to the unpopular acts of the Fleming government, an administration that is becoming increasingly unpopular in the rural districts as a result of the neglect of the farmers' interests, the prospects are regarded as exceedingly bright in this section of the province for the opposition forces to ally themselves with the gerrymander bill through the legislature by the Conservatives.

QUEENS COUNTY NOMINATIONS

Efforts of Tories to Break Up Messrs Carpenter and King in Their Speeches Fail—No Doubt of Liberal Success.

Gagetown, N. B., June 13.—Nomination proceedings here today were very simply attended owing to the unfavorable weather and had rays throughout the county, and the joint debate this afternoon was listened to by a very small number of electors.

As is usually the case there was a concerted attempt on the part of Gagetown Tories to start a disturbance when the Liberal candidates attempted to speak but they gained nothing by their unfair tactics.

Mr. Carpenter hammered home his arguments against the government in his treatment of the Tories, and the Liberal party, and the Tories were in a business-like practical way greatly appealed to the fair-minded men in the audience.

There are few farmers who can handle public questions like Mr. Carpenter when he gets on the platform and he was at the meeting today along with a smooth-tongued lawyer from Fredericton who has given the county but indifferent service since he was elected as one of the representatives of the county in 1908.

The people of Queens want King and Carpenter as their next representatives and there is no doubt of their election.

Mr. Carpenter's speech was a masterpiece of logic and he was at the meeting today along with a smooth-tongued lawyer from Fredericton who has given the county but indifferent service since he was elected as one of the representatives of the county in 1908.

Mr. Leger made a telling speech in giving reasons for changing from an independent member of the legislature to a straight opponent of the government.

Mr. Byrne made one of the best speeches of his life and in his reply of ten minutes he completely crushed his opponents.

Mr. Venot's appeal, both in English and French, was a masterpiece of logic and he was at the meeting today along with a smooth-tongued lawyer from Fredericton who has given the county but indifferent service since he was elected as one of the representatives of the county in 1908.

STRONG LIBERAL TICKET IN SUNBURY

George W. Kimball and Milton A. Smith Will Give the Tory Candidates a Hard Battle.

Oromocto, June 13.—(Special)—George W. Kimball, farmer of Oromocto, and Milton A. Smith, farmer of Blissville, and we are for election that morning and received the nominations of George H. King and I. W. Carpenter as opposition candidates, and A. R. Shipp and W. Woods as government candidates.

The sheriff also presided at the joint debate this afternoon held in the court house. Mr. Shipp spoke first, followed by Mr. Venot, Mr. Woods then presented for another hour with the patient people and Mr. King closed the debate in an excellent address, reviewing the issues of the campaign and presenting the progressive platform of Mr. Copp, as outlined in his manifesto.

NOMINATIONS IN VICTORIA COUNTY

Messrs. Tweeddale and Burgess Opposed by T. J. Carter and J. L. White.

Andover, N. B., June 13.—(Special)—Nomination day proceedings went off very quietly here today and a large crowd filled the court house to hear the usual speeches of the candidates.

The nominations of the government candidates were made by Scott Merritt and Hugh Warnock, both of whom had ten minutes to reply to the opposition candidates.

Mr. Leger made a telling speech in giving reasons for changing from an independent member of the legislature to a straight opponent of the government.

Mr. Byrne made one of the best speeches of his life and in his reply of ten minutes he completely crushed his opponents.
