Sydney Murder Case Takes New Turn and Stay of Execution Likely

John Donalds and Mrs. Atkinson Arrested on Story Told by Frank Haynes, Sentenced to Die Friday Morning-Jealousy Said to be Motive for Confession - Donalds Never Before Under Suspicion.

Sydney, N. S., May 6-A startling Sydney, N. S., May 6-A startling sensation was sprung last evening when John Donalds, one of the witnesses in the Haynes case, and Mrs. Atkinson, widow of the murdered man, were ar-rested for complicity in the tragedy. The warrants were sworn out on the basis of a statement made by the conviced man, Haynes, to Crown Prosecutor Hearne, Sheriff Ingraham and Captain Fullerton of the Salvation Army. The arrest of Donalds was particularly surprising as no word of suspicion had been even hinted against this man. Mrs. Atkinson is arrested this time as an accessory after the fact and for con-spiracy.

Actimison is arrested this time as an accessory after the fact and for con-spiracy. The arrests were made by Constable Edwards, Donalds being taken into cus-tody just after coming out of Roddy's Cafe and when arrested is said to have asked: "Has Haynes squealed?" When Officer Edwards entered the hotel and presented the warrant to Mrs. Atkinson she asked what it all meant. He replied, "just this, Haynes has squealed. He has admitted killing Den and that you paid him." Hearing this Mrs. Atkinson shrieked. She got into communication with John Gannon, of North Sydney, to whom it is reported she was to have been married in the near future. She also pleaded to be allowed to remain in the hotel over might stating that the jail was not fit for anyone. After some argument she became hysterical and later was not in a condition to be moved. Haynes as far as can be learned accuses John Donalds of heing an assist-ant in the actual crime, claiming that Donalds held the horse and bruised the body after the murder had been com-mitted. Mrs. Atkinson's alleged part in the affair could not be learned except that it is said she is charged with being the instigator.

Telegrams giving facts of the confi sion were sent to Attorney-General Jenks, Minister of Justice Doherty and Jenks, Minister of Justice Doherty and Mr. Justice Drysdale. Attention is drawn to the fact that Haynes being a convicted man cannot give legal testi-mony but nevertheless the crown prose-cutor has asked a stay of execution from the department of justice as Haynes is said to be eager to aid the prosecution of Mrs. Atkinson and Donalds. It is helieved Haynes has turned assist Mrs. of Mrs. Atkinson and Donalds. It is believed Haynes has turned against Mrs. Atkinson because of rumors he heard of her intended marriage to Gannon. It was claimed at first that Haynes did away with Atkinson to clear the way for himself with Mrs. Atkinson. All is prepared for the execution of Haynes at sunrise Friday. It is generally believed that a stay of execution will be granted. Ottawa Hears News.

Campbellton, N. B., May 4-A das-tardly attack was made. Sunday morning upon a young girl, aged thirteen years, at the church of Our Lady of the Snows. Mary Hello, a Syrian girl, while attend-ing mass, was taken ill and came out, when she was approached by two men and taken under the high portice of the church, where she was bound to a post, and gagged, then with a switch they are said to have beaten her. No assault other than this is charged. Having heaped inidignities upon their victim they left her.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have been caused by rats nibbling at matches. The house is owned by Mrs-Stephen Ferguson, now visiting her daughter in Florida. A small insurance is on the house, and Mr. Lebbins has also some insurance upon his furniture.
