

ology; in the University of Toronto. The three options—Biblical Greek of the Second Examination, Church History of the Second Examination, Dogmatics of the Second Examination, Homiletics of the Second Examination; Elocution of the University of Toronto. Biblical Greek of the Second Examination, Church History of the Second Examination, Dogmatics of the Second Examination, Exegesis of the Old and New Testament, Dogmatics, Pastoral Theology, Elocution of the Second Examination.

ed for the Third Examination, Theological Course, and the Second Examination.

end the Theological Examination, taking the prescribed subjects in accordance with the ed for the First Examination, together with the following Second Examination:—Biblical Greek; Dogmatics; Literature of the Old Testament; Apologetics; Pastoral Theology;

ed for the Third Examination, together with the following of the Second Examination, and Exegesis of the New Testament; Church History; Liturgics.

y be admitted under the Council may determine, on the basis of practical experience, and on the basis of such an examination as may be entered upon the course of the course of four years:

FIRST YEAR.....	Latin; Elements of Greek Testament Grammar and Vocabulary, with Harper and Weidner's Manual. English; History; one of the Sciences—Biology or Physics of the First Year, in the University of Toronto. Rhetoric; General Outlines of Christian Doctrine.
SECOND, THIRD, AND FOURTH YEARS..	The same work prescribed in A for Matriculated Students, with the addition of Rhetoric in the second year.

N. B.—In the event of a candidate not satisfying the examiners at the end of this first preliminary year of his competency to take up the work of the second year as herein prescribed, he must spend a second year in the preliminary work.

2. A Candidate for examination in any year in the course who has failed in not more than three subjects of the examination, may be allowed to present himself at the next ensuing October Supplemental Examination on the subject or subjects only in which he has so failed. No candidate shall be allowed to enter upon the next succeeding year of his course until he has passed at the Supplemental Examination in the subject or subjects in which he has failed.

3. No deviation from these regulations will be allowed except by petition from the Council.

SECTION V.

Theological Options.

Wycliffe College being in affiliation with the University of Toronto, every inducement is held out to students to proceed to a degree in that institution. By a recently enacted statute, subjects taught in Wycliffe and other Theological Colleges, viz., Biblical Greek, Biblical Literature, Church History, and Apologetics are allowed as Options in the University of Toronto, in the Second, Third and Fourth Years. The following excerpts from the curriculum of the University of Toronto explain in detail the options allowed:

Undergraduates in the Pass course in the Third and Fourth Years may, in lieu of one or more of the subjects prescribed for each of three years, take certain of the following subjects, namely, Biblical Greek, Biblical Literature, Apologetics, and Church History, according to the following scheme: