Maw Brunswick,
December 10, 1855.

Dear Sir: I thank you for the Philosophical Charts, They furnish an admirable substitute for the more expensive apparatus. The Charts, hung on the walls of the School-room, in all which I hope to see them, will spread before the scholar a palpable illustration of the great laws in Natural Philosophy. He will learn much of God from the works of his hand and the ordinance of his ap-

The small volume that comes with them, and a little explanation by the teacher, will render the Charts one of them. the most useful means of instruction.

Very respectfully yours.

Theodore Freinghuysen.

Mr. A. Ranney.

There are ten Charts in all, each measuring 34 by 52 inches, and the set contains, altogether, about three bundred diagrams, illustrative of the most important outline principles of the Natural Sciences. Besides the essential diagrams found in the ordinary text-books, these Charts contain several original illustrations and possesses the merit rarely found in the school-books, of being entirely original in plan and arrangement. They are, moreover, highly ornamental to a school-room, and obviate the necessity of philosophical apparatus which sity of philosophical apparatus which would cost from £3,000 to $5,000.
