CONSERVATIVES SORE ATTACK BEAVERBROOK

English Tories Start Move To Oust Him From Club, Says Report.

LONDON, March 6.—(By Canadian Associated Press).—The Manchester Guardian declares that much soreness is felt in Conservative circles over the result of the Dudley by-election against the conductors of a Conservative newspaper, the Dally Express, in connection with the cruzade against Sir Arthur Griffiths-Boscawen on the Canadian cattle embargo question.

There is a rule in the Carlton Club against members attacking other members in elections, and there is a movement afoot to put the rule into force against two members of the club, viz: the proprietor and the editor of the Dally Express, which fought its own party in this election. Members, however, the Manchester Guardian adds, do not think this is more than a threat.

The Sunday Express, Lord Beaver-brook's Sunday edition, praphrases this announcement more bluntly. It says:
