

Rules of the Senate—occasionally dispensed with :

- 14th, requiring notice of a special motion.
- 41st, against reading a Bill twice the same day.
- 49th, against receiving Petitions, Private Bills or Reports, after a certain day.
- 51st, requiring certain notices for Private Bills.
- 18th, requiring a Report on all Motions for suspending Rules on Private Bill Petitions.
- 57th, requiring Petitions to be reported on before introduction of Bills.
- 61st requiring a notice before consideration of Private Bills by Committees.

S

Salutations—on entering or crossing the Senate Chamber, 9.

Saturday—The Senate does not generally sit on; 7.

Seats—retained by Senators until the Speaker has left the Chair, 8.

—— below the Bar are reserved for Members of the Commons, 104.

—— vacated, 10.

Select Committees—See Committees, Select.

Senate—cleared of strangers, 11.

Senators—See Members of the Senate.

Sharp and taxing Speeches, 26. See Debates.

Six o'clock—The Speaker leaves the Chair at, till half-past seven, 4.