REGULATIONS RELATIVE TO SEC. V.

Article 1.—The Governor-general of India, and the Governors of Madras and Bombay, are to be saluted by Her Majesty's ships and forts in India, with the number of guns specified in scale § V.; but these salutes are not to take place any where but in the Indian Seas, and in forts and batteries at and to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope.

Article 2.—The Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports is to be saluted by the forts within his jurisdiction, with the number of guns specified in scale § V., and as heretofore has been the practice.

Article 3.—All other Governors or Lords High Commissioners of Her Majesty's Colonies, Foreign Possessions, Castles, or Fortresses (including Her Majesty's Lord High Commissioner of the Ionian Islands), shall be entitled to a salute of the number of guns specified against their rank in scale § V.; but they shall be entitled to this compliment only within the precincts of their governments; consequently when they proceed in a ship of war from the United Kingdom, they are only to be saluted by such ship on their quitting her after arrival at their several destinations. A Governor, on his first landing in his government, shall be entitled to be saluted
