Delta Gamma To Hold Meeting Thursday; Will Elect Representatives, Committees

Frosh Show More Guts Than Brains; Won't Obey Orders

BY A WISE FROSH

Some people have more guts than brains!

After being warned about the non-cooperation at Saturday's sing song many Frosh have failed to heed the handwriting on the wall.

Placards are day by day becoming a rarer sight on the local campus, and upperclass commands to shine shoes or supply matches have been halted with such informal replies as, "drop dead" and "go suck a lemon".

Certain foolhardy Frosh have even been seen chewing gum and partaking of the weed.

If current events are a preview of things to come this observer feels that bi-colored beanies will be few and far between come Christmas.

We feel the only way to nip this thing before the Frosh start an Un-Initiation Week is for the Sophs to show their authority Friday night and penalize the guilty ones to the full extent of the law.

Don Warner to Be At Dance Tonight

Don Warner and his orchestra are the big attraction at the Freshie-Soph dance tonight. This will be his first appearance in the Gym with an orchestra in four years.

The Freshie-Soph dance is the first big dance of the year on the campus. It marks the end of initiation week (but not necessarily the end of initiation, frosh).

All the wayward frosh are put on trial at the dance. An impartial jury are selected from the crowd and there are usually two judges equally impartial.

What fate awaits those who are convicted remains to be seen. But it is safe to say that they will wish they had their days over to reconsider their waywardness and go straight.

Incidentally, eggs are a dime a dozen for the evening, but don't bring a basket.

Canterbury Club—The Canterbury Club will hold its first meeting of the year in the Cathedral Barracks, on Sunday, Oct. 7, at 8.15 p.m. All Anglican students and any others who wish to attend will be very welcome.

Delta Gamma is planning to hold its first meeting of the year next Thursday at 12.00 o'clock, according to the president of the society, Nancy Briggs.

Elections will take place for Sophomores, Junior, and Freshette representatives, the City Social Manager and the Social Committee, the Debating and Dramatics Manager, and the Decorations Manager and Committee. It is hoped that there will be a large turn-out of both old and new students.

Delta Gamma is the organization which is in charge of all girls' activities on the campus, and every girl who is registered at Dal automatically becomes a member. Delta Gamma's main project for this term will be the Open House which will be held at Shirreff Hall in November.

Beanies Removed for Tea at Shirreff Hall

The Freshettes, minus beanies and placards for a few hours, were entertained at tea at Shirreff Hall on Tuesday afternoon.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Kerr, Miss Mowat, Marge Rodd, the president of the Shirreff Hall House Committee, and Mary Lou Sutherland.

Mrs. Hemion, Mrs. Scammell, and Miss Rowley, who is the new girls' physical directress on the campus, poured tea, while Sally Roper, Joan Johnstone, Jane Clow, Mary Trynor and Betty Morse served.

There was quite a good number of girls from both the Hall and the city present.

Sodales—There will be a meeting of Sodales in the Munro Room of the Forrest Building at 7.30 Tuesday. This year's executive will be elected at the meeting.

Square Dances and Virginia Reels at Barn Dance Enjoyed By Frosh; Tea, Stag and Open House Form Other Events

After the Sabbath layoff, initiation activities picked up again Monday with the commencement of classes.

The big do Monday was the Barn Dance in the gym. After many enjoyable rounds of square dances and Virginia reels, time out was called for cokes and then a variety show was staged by the Frosh. Included on the card was paring of Doug Waller's arm by trickster John Sinclair. On the

To Address Students At Convocation

To mark the opening of the academic year, the President will address all members of the University in the Gymnasium, Studley, at 12.15 p.m. on Thursday, October 11.

Members of the Board of Governors and of Faculty will meet at 12 noon in Room 12, Men's Residence, to take their places in the academic procession. Faculty members are expected to wear academic dress.

Students enrolled in the University for the first time will meet in the Common Room, Men's Residence and join the academic procession to the Gymnasium, where seats will be reserved for them. Other students will proceed directly to the Gymnasium.

Members of Faculty are asked to remind their classes and to request a full attendance.

New Council Member Elected At Meeting

Margaret "Foo" Grant, fourth year Arts student, was elected Freshman representative on the Students' Council at the meeting of that body last Tuesday evening.

The position was vacated when Sherman Zwicker, former president of the Council, who was elected to that position, failed to return to the University. It was filled according to the Council Constitution which requires that a former member of the Council be appointed to such a vacancy.

Foo was a member of the Council last year when she was elected Junior Girl.

Law Ball to be Held Friday, October 26

The Law Ball will be held this year on October 26. This was decided at a special meeting of the Law Society yesterday morning.

Several dates were announced as possible by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Society, Roger Cyr. After considerable discussion, it was decided to hold the annual function in the Nova Scotia Hotel on this date.

A committee was elected to be in charge of the affair. They are Don Goode, (Third Year), Kevin Griffin, (Second Year), and Sheila Parsons, (First Year).

Ex-Gazette Editor, Charles MacIntosh, was elected as Gazette correspondent for the Society for the year.

Student Council Briefs

The Students' Council has notified that tenders for the position of Chairman of the Publicity Organization will be accepted up to 6 o'clock, Oct. 12. Applications may be left at the Council Office in the gym.

Thanksgiving—By direction of the Senate, classes will not meet on Monday, October 8, a statutory holiday.

Dalhousie To Meet Stadacona Saturday, Shearwater Monday

Dalhousie Tigers celebrate the Thanksgiving weekend this year with two home games. The new field which first came into use last fall will be the scene of a game against Stadacona on Saturday and against Shearwater on Monday. Blatant predictions have not been forthcoming from either the coach or the team but both have expressed confidence as to their showing in the games.

FLASH!

Pending a further decision, all students will be admitted to the home games for 25c on presentation of their Council cards.

The Studley field was only used for Dalhousie home games twice last year. Both were played on the Thanksgiving week-end then, too. This year with the introduction of a fifth team into the league, it became necessary to use the Dal field more often.

As a result there will be six home games played on the field this year. In addition to that, there will be two outside games played on the field, one between Stadacona and Shearwater, the other between Shearwater and Wanderers.

The gate receipts committee will handle the gate. It is expected that members of the Freshmen class will be assigned to police the stone fence to make sure that no one tries to get in by underhand means.

Both games last year were well attended and there was no gate crashing. It is expected that there will be a large turnout for all the games this year.

There will be a pep rally tomorrow morning.

To Pay Tribute To Lieut. Joe Levison

Dalhousie students will pay a tribute to an ex-Dalhousian on Saturday. He is Lieutenant Joe Levison, who lost his life in Korea last June, when a land mine exploded under the jeep in which he was driving.

Before the start of the football game, those attending will rise and observe one minute's silence for Joe who had played with the Tigers for several years.

Joe was always a keen Dalhousian. He played with the football team for three years. An active member of the International Students' Service, he was local chairman of that group on the Campus. He was also active with the Dalhousie Gazette as well as with the C.O.T.C., and he was an ex-manager of the hockey squad.

Joe attended Queen Elizabeth High and St. Mary's before coming to Dal. At the end of his last full year at Dal he was awarded a Gold D.

Last year he left Dal to join Canada's special force. He was with the Public Relations office when in Korea.

Last June he and another officer from the Office were driving along in a jeep when a land mine exploded. Both were killed; their British driver escaped with severe injuries.

His death was sorrowful news to all those who knew him. And the one minute's silence at the football game and again at the first Student Forum will be observed respectfully by all students.

Frosh Enlisted For Policing Duties at Game

Decision to enlist the aid of the freshmen in policing the Dalhousie field at home games in the Canadian Football league was reached by the Students' Council Tuesday. Choosing of 20 students for the duty was left to Graham Muttart, newly elected chairman of the Gate's Receipt Committee.

Due to the difficulty of keeping unpaid spectators from the ends of the gridiron and the south wall which was found in last year's games with a nominal policing force, it was thought this number would be needed at each game. To avoid asking the same freshmen more than necessary it was decided to rotate through their number.

Identification of the group by armbands or other means was left to Graham Muttart, elected chairman of the Gates Receipt Committee by the Students' Council, Tuesday, when Bill Haley resigned from that position due to pressure of studies. The committee now consists of Graham Muttart, Bill Haley and Dave Bryson.
