Everyone is invited to come to the FUN FAIR at Silverthorn Public School (off Cawthra rd.) on Saturday, Jan. 27, from 2-6 p.m.

The Silverthorn Home and School Association has made preparations for this event for some time now.

They plan to have a white elephant sale, a general store, a candy counter and a bake sale.

Children can view cartoons, try to catch a prize at the fish-pond or get a hot dog and pop, while parents may look for the tea room to get their refreshments.

A colorful display of Silhouette Hats provided some excitement at the Pot Luck Supper of the Anglican Church Women at St. Luke's on the Hill on Dixie rd. during the evening of Jan. 23.

On the new executive for 1968 are Mrs. D. C. Candy, honorary president; Norah Jackson, president; Diana Boniwell, first vice-president.

Secretary is Zita Lade, treasurer Marguerite

Dorothea Sheasby
APPLEWOOD
625-1660

Patterson, education secretary Frances La Valley, community service Martha Morgan, sunshine convener Margaret Alderdice, communications secretary Gloria Johnson, president chancel guild Olga Clarkson, president choir guild Gwen Adams, Dorcas representative Lil Fox, Dept. of Family Life, Diana Boniwell, members at large Betty May and Betsy Davidson.

A video tape machine, which plays back previously recorded television programs, is being used successfully on an experimental basis by teachers of Tomken Road Senior Public school.

The first part of an eight part series of grade eight mathematics is being used in all ten of the school's grade eight classes.

Another series, which has just been completed, dealt with comparative religions.

Science and geography lessons are also available. All have been recorded by the audio visual department.

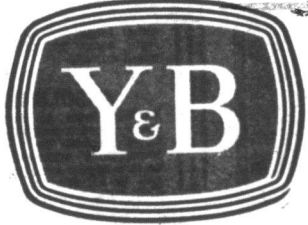

The Rev. Dr. Peter Gordon White, secretary of the United Church's Board of Christian Education was the guest minister at St. Luke's on the Hill United Church on Sunday Jan. 21.
