

D 40903

Re: St. Paul's

I would not be true to the promptings of my own heart and conscience if I did not say to my friends in America: come over and help us, and that as quickly as you can - not for our sakes only but for yours and all that you hold sacred in the name of freedom.