

Indiana admitted as State
(1816), 79

J

Jameson, J. F., quoted, 59-60

Jay, John, on reciprocity of consular convention with France, 5; Peace Commissioner, 10, 11; personal characteristics, 10-11; sent to Spain, 11; on settlement of debts, 15; on compensation to Loyalists, 20; and The Federalist, 156-57

Jefferson, Ferdinand, quoted, 174 (note)

Jefferson, Thomas, on Peace Commission, 10; and land policy, 62-64; life and characteristics, 62-63; Ordinance of 1784, 67, 69-71, 75; on value of Continental scrip, 88-89; opinion of Federal Convention, 109, 116; spokesman for colonies, 143; on ratification of Constitution, 152; Hopkinson's letter to, 161; Crèvecoeur's letter to, 165; bibliography, 222

Jefferson's Ordinance of 1784, see Ordinance of 1784

Jenifer, Daniel of St. Thomas, 153-54

Johnson, Dr. W. S., 115, 140

Judiciary, 131-33

K

Kent, Chancellor, 61

Kercheval, Samuel, History of the Valley of Virginia, quoted, 33-34

King, Rufus, in Federal Convention, 113, 132, 140; on three-fifths rule, 122; on form of executive, 134

Knox, Henry, 61

L

Lafayette, Marquis de, Washington's letter to, 164-65

La Luzerne, Chevalier de, French Minister in Philadelphia, 7

Land, question of ownership of western, 56-57; cession to United States by States, 58-59; American interest in, 59-62; Jefferson and land policy, 62-64; plan for sale under Ordinance of 1785, 65-66

Land Ordinance of 1785, 64-66, 71

Lansing, John, 116

Laurens, Henry, 10

Lecky, W. E. H., The American Revolution, cited, 32 (note)

Lincoln, General Benjamin, and Shays' Rebellion, 94; letter to Washington, 152-153

Lingelbach, W. E., cited, 3 (note)

Loyalists, question of compensation of, 16-17, 19-20; groups comprising, 17; treatment of, 18-19; Commissioners agree to restitution, 20

M

McMaster, J. B., History of the People of the United States, quoted, 31; Acquisition of Industrial, Popular, and Political Rights of Man in America, quoted, 45

Madison, James, describes trade situation, 30; on violation of federal authority by Virginia, 100-01; personal characteristics, 103-04; and Annapolis Trade Convention, 104; quoted, 108; Washington and, 111; for strong