

dues for the current year. The Committee may in its discretion re-admit any member who has resigned, upon payment of one year's arrears and the full current year's subscription, such applicant being also subject to ballot under Article I.

XIV. The Committee may invite to accept of and admit to the privileges of the Club as Honorary member, for such period as they from time to time see fit, the Governor-General of Canada and such other persons to whom they may desire to extend such an invitation.

XV. Any member may, at his own expense, introduce guests to breakfast, luncheon, dinner, or supper, and such guests shall, on that day and while accompanied by the member introducing them, be admitted to all parts of the Club; but such privilege shall cease as soon as the guests or the member introducing them leave the Club. The Committee may, at any time, limit the number of guests to be admitted under this Article and require members to give notice of their intention to bring guests to luncheon or dinner.

XVI. Except as provided in Article XV. no member shall introduce or entertain a resident of Ottawa in the Club. Strangers not residents of Ottawa shall not be entertained by members except in the Stranger's Room or for meals. Any person calling to see a member shall remain in the Stranger's Room, and such member shall be notified of the same forthwith.

XVII. Any member introducing a friend into the Club, under Articles IX., X. or XV., shall be responsible for his conduct while in the members.

Honorary

Guests.

Strangers.

Members
responsible for the friends they introduce.