

V.—Numbers. Each competitor shall receive from the clerk of the course and shall fasten upon his person in a conspicuous place, a number by which he shall be known in that competition.

VI.—Running. In races on straight tracks competitors shall keep their own positions on the track from start to finish.

Not less than three watches shall be held on the leading man in each heat.

VII.—Running High Jump and Pole Vaulting. The stick shall be started as nearly as possible to three feet and six inches from the ground in the high jump, and five feet and ten inches in the pole vault. It shall be raised thereafter two inches at a time in the high jump, and four inches in the pole vault. Displacing the bar is a failure. Each contestant shall be allowed but ten jumps. The best one shall be counted. Contestants shall jump in regular order as called for by the judge. A contestant may omit his jump at any height, but he cannot in any case try a height after once having "passed" it. The jump shall be made over a square bar. Three balks shall count as one failure, and thus be one of the ten jumps called for. It is a balk if the contestant crosses a line six feet from and parallel with the posts. The "Dive" is not allowed. There shall be one set of jump standards for every five contestants. The pole vault standards may have any support in
