From this second part of the creed you must draw this inference. Since (as St. John says) God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believed in him should not perish. John 3. 16. You ought to believe in Jesus Christ, as King David advises, in Psal. 2. 12. Kiss the son, lest he be angry. That is, you ought to embrace the opportunity he has offered to you; to obtain salvation through the merits of his death and sufferings: You ought to renounce all sin; and live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world, as saith St. Paul to Titus 2. 12. Finally, since Jesus Christ is to judge the world in righteousness, as we read in the Act 17. 31. and in many other places in scripture, you ought according to the Apostle's advice to pass the time of your sojourning here in fear, 1. Peter 1. 17. lest by your offences, you draw condemnation upon you.

THIRD Part of the Creed.

I believe in the Holy Ghost.

The Holy Ghost is the third person of the blessed Trinity, whom thereby you acknowledge as being God with the Father and the Son.

By the Holy Ghost, you may understand that spirit of God, whereby the scriptures were divinely inspired; and whereby true children of God receive assistance, both to help them in their endeavours, and to comfort them in their afflictions.
