

The Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway passes through Goldstream and Colwood and is within a few miles of Happy Valley and in easy driving distance of Metchosin and Albert Head. The long sea front and the number of sheltered inlets

An Albert Head Farm

Photo by J. Howard A. Chapman

present so many natural harbors and afford natural and easy access to the water that as a convenient and economical method of transport it cannot much longer be neglected. During the coming summer a steamship service is promised to

Oats in Stook, Goldstream Farm

Photo by Miss Pooley

Jordan River and way points. The excellent roads, characteristic of these districts, and the usual mild weather make drives to town on business or pleasure, or both, most enjoyable. At