To the Reverend Charles J. Duffus:

Dear Reverend Father—Words at any time portrary but feebly the sentiments of the heart, but on this occasion we find them entirely inadequate to give expression to the feelings of deep regret with which our hearts are filled. From the moment we heard that you would likely be called away from us we were selfish enough to hope that you would still be left with us, but our pressures here to day speaks only too plainly of how vain our hopes were.

We have come, with all the reverence and affection which can blind a congregation to their pastor, to say, in the simple language of the heart, "Good-bye," though we fain would leave that tender word unspoken. It seems hard, dear Father, to part from you, to whan we have been devotedly bound for a higher plane, and following the deates of our Holy Mother the Church, we how our heads in humble submission to the commands of higher authority. We there also no part our part of the part of the commands of higher authority.

their the Chairman authinision to the commands of nigner hority. Ics, dear Father, since you come to our parwe perceived that we were blessed by a you and holy pries; one that was ever ready sacrifice himself for both the spiritual and rporal good of the people over whom our late sloved Archbishop had placed you. Every-se amongst us, in their hour of trials and sickesse ever found a friend, one full of consolation and advice, and, like the good Samaritan, ready peomfort them as far as possible. Again, no ne ever approached you for either advice or onsolation but went away rejoicing and beging God to bless and protect Father Duffussing God to a god protect Father Duffussing God to bless and protect Father Duffussing God to bless and protect Father Duffussing God to a god protect Father Duffussing God protect Fa parish, with its spacious vauif—all, all bear evidence of the pious and masterly hand which guided a people so as to accomplish all that has been done. Furthermore, when you came amongst us you found us heavily in debt, but, not withstanding all the improvements that have been made, and all the property that has been purchased, to day, for the first time in the history of the old, enlightened and religious parish of St. John the Baptist, Perth, there is a cash surplus to the credit of the congregation. But this is not all. While our temporal and worldly affairs were being looked after, you were ever watchful (f our spiritual needs. Missions were given, and it must have been an edifying occasion to you when the missionary, Rev Father McPhall, standing before God's altar, and in the presence of yourself and the vast congregation, congratulated the parishioners on being the most religious and most fervent in the faith of any congregation to which he had ever preached. This in itself speaks volumes, and requires no further comment to show to whom is due the honor of such a state of spiritual perfection. ial perfection.

Yes, dear Father, if you have removed our worldly debt, you have also removed our spiriual debt, so far as it lies in the power of any pastor to do. You have labored hard at the most meritorious work on earth, that of keeping our holy faith alive and saving souls, and it is with pleasure that we acknowledge that your efforts have been crowned with success. How well do we remember that Friday evening, nearly nine years ago, when our late lamented Archbishop Cleary, seated on this very altar, in the presence of yourself and your fellow-priests, addressing the vast congregation with which this sacred edifice was crowded, told them that "he had come to place over them as their pastor Rev. Father Duffus, one of the best priests in the diocese of Kingston," Such a eulogy, coming, as it did from one of the greatest minds that ever adorned the Church in Canada, at d from a prelate who adhered strictly to the principle, "Honor to whom honor is due," can only be realized by a retrospective glance of your work as a priest.

Ordained at kin gston, in 18-2, you were them as pointed as a cural estafford, at the town of Lindsay of Cryster and Moose Creek, then in me, your next appointment was to the parish of Kemptville, but if the haith necessitated your going south, when, on your return, you were spointed to the parish of St. Raphael's, where you labored for seven years, and then you were called to take charge of the parish of Merrickville, which was your last appointment to your revious to your installation here. Each sppointed to the parish of St. Raphael's, where you labored for seven years, and then you were called to take charge of the parish of Merrickville, which was your last appointment previous to your installation here. Each parish in turn bears evidence of your zeal and piety, whether in the erection of churches, or improvements of those already built, or further still, in some cases the reduction and in others the entire wiping out of the debt with which the rection pout of the business of the parish would be burdened. In the rection of the parish were burdened. The rection of the parish would have installed into their young minds the ground-work of their holy faith, which would enable them to withstand the trials and temptations of life, your labors were ceaseless. Most of this work was done in the midst of incense suffering, which was borne with that Christian fortitude which characterizes the priest of God; and then you were appointed to our own parish, and, though we are sorry to part from you, yet we console ourselves by the thought that our loss will be another's gain.

As a slight token of the filial devotedness in which you are held, and as the offering of a grateful people, we ask you to accept this purse. Accept it not for its intrinsic value but rather as a slight token of the love and esteem in which you are held. If our gratitude to you could be measured by earthly treasures, and this purse were multiplied a hundred fold, we feel that we would still be indebted to you. In your prayers and at the altar we ask a remembrance for ourselves and our families.

And now, dear Father, farewell, and hoping that God may spare you for many years as a faithfull aborer in His vineyad; that He may give you abundant graces to fulfil the sacred your also preserved and sheared of the congregation of St. John the Baptist, Perth.

Signed on behalf of the Congregation of St. John the Baptist, Perth.

After the reading of the address the Rev. Father was visibly affected, and his grief was intensified by the property of the state of the congregation progressed, but he bore up bravely untaken the progressed, but he bore up bravely untaken the west finished and handed to him. All well knew this was the last act which would forever sever the ties of love and friendship with which paster and people were bound. When frail nature could no longer bear up, the Rev. Father completely broke down, and gave vent to his feelings of grief by tears which he had tried hard to suppress. This was a signal for a general and renewed outburst on the part of the congregation, it was several minutes before Father Duffus could attemp a reply. He began by thanking the committee for their very handsome and tangible present. He said there were times in each man's life when it was impossible to find words to suitably express the feelings of his heart, and to him this was one of them. Never in his life did he feel a task bear so heavily upon him as to say "good-bye" to the good dear people of Perth. He said he would not attempt to answer all of the various culogies which have been bestowed upon him in their very beautiful address, but there was one, namely, that in which mention is made of the placing of him as their pastor, nearly nine years ago, by their late lamented Archbishop Cleary, which he could not allow to go unnoticed. The reference which that great prelate had made to his standing as a priest in the diocese of Kingston was made not only out of respect to himself as a pactor, but also out of respect to himself as a pactor, but also out of respect to himself as a pactor, but also out of respect to himself as a pactor, but also out of respect to himself as a pactor, but also out of respect to himself as a pactor, but also out of respect to himself as a pactor, but also out of respect to himself as a pactor, but also out of respect to himself as a pactor, but a

DIOCESE OF PETERBOROUGH.

Address and Presentation. Special to the CATHOLIC RECORD.

On Sunday last our esteemed pastor, the Rev.
C. S. Bretherton, took leave of his congregation in anticipation of his departure for England on Saturday next. A large congregation was present and among them a number of friends from outside of the parish who wished to see him and say good-bye.

Nearly a year ago he had the misfortune of dislocating one of his ankles in a fall and has not fully recovered from the injury yet. In order that he may do so His Lordship the Bishop has kindly given him permission to take a holiday trip to the land of his birth, where no doubt he will soon become as strong and energetic as heretofore.

The occasion was taken advantage of by his parishioners to express their appreciation of his services as parish priest and of presenting him Special to the CATHOLIC RECORD.

To the fev. C. S. Breiberton, Fastor of St. Luke's, Downeyville:

Dear Father—So conflicting and varied are the emotions which on this occasion fill our hearts with mingled feelings of pleasure and pain, that to picture them is beyond the reach of our feeble pen. Notwithstanding this inability on our part, beloved pastor, to express in words our appreciation of your services in the past and our good wishes for you in the future, we beg to acknowledge our desire to do so, trusting that the desire will be accepted in lieu of the effort. We are well aware that the priest renounces family ties and worldly friendships when taking Holy Orders, nevertheless a trip to the Old Country, and more especially when it is the land of one's birth, must rejoice the heart of the voyager, and we rejoice with you, esteemed pastor, though your absence is attended by circumstances of sorrow and regret. congregation and the people of Perth in general.

The illumination of the address was done by the Rev. Superioress in charge of the convent here, and was indeed a work of art.

Father Duffus has been pastor of Perth for over eight and one half years, and, during that time he has endeared himself to the congregation, both old and young, in a greater degree perhaps than almost any other priest who has ever been in charge here, and, from his gentlemanjy bearing, he made hosts of friends threughout the town and country. The best wishes of all for his future health, and success go with him to his new parish.

especially when it is the land of one's birth, must rejoice the heart of the voyager, and we rejoice with you, esteemed pastor, though your absence is attended by circumstances of sorrow and regret.

Pleasing indeed and consoling as well is the thought that, while your absence is the outcome of an unfortunate accident, it affords you the pleasure of visiting once more the joyous scenes of happy boyhood, of meeting again the friends of earlier days, and above all of joining, if only for a limited time, the family circle, there to enjoy a well-earned rest and regain, we trust, your former strength and vigor.

It also affords us, respected pastor, an opportunity of manifesting our appreciation of the good priest who, regardless alike of personal effort and private interest, has established for us a church property at once so substantial and beautiful as to occupy a position in the front rank of church properties in this diocese.

We can recall many, very many instances, of self-denial and devotedness to my interest which would afford us the very any interests which would afford us the very endine our pleasure to mention here, but inconfine our pleasure to mention here, but each grant protective to a very few.

We can recall many, very many instances, of self-denial and devotedness to my interest which would afford us the very endine our pleasure to mention here, but inconfine our pleasure to mention here, but inconfine our pleasure to mention here, but held the protection of the private resources, then in our children. So great has this been that, not satisfied with teaching and instructing them in their religion and the life they should lead, you must, it seemed, go farther and from time to, time, often to the disadvantage of your own private resources, arrange plenies and entertainments, a delight to them at the moment, and a fond memory in the future.

BLOOD POISONING. Terrible Suffering of a Prince Edward

SPITAL TREATMENT FAILED TO BENEFIT HIM AND HIS LIFE. WAS DESPAIRED OF—AGAIN WELL AND STRONG.

From the Beileville Sun.

From the Beileville Sun.

A reporter of the Beileville Sun recently had an opportunity to investigate a cure made through the use of Dr. Williams Pink Pills for Pale People which is little short of miraculous. The subject of the cure is Mr. Williams I Conklin, a well-known farmer who lives in Amcliasburg township, Prince Edward county. When the reporter drove over to see Mr. Conkin he was under the impression, from what he had heard of the case, that he would find a partial invalid, but to his surprise found a stalwart, robust man of six feet, actively engaged unloading logs from a sleigh. On making known the object of his visit the reporter was invited into the house and Mr. Conklin gave his story as follows:

"You can see for yourself that my condition is now one of good health, and yet I have been near death's door. A year ago last summer I injured my hand, with the result that blood poisoning set in. A doctor was called in and the usual treatment given and the hand apparently got well and I started to work. It soon turned out, however, that the poison and not been entirely got ris stem. The doctor was again called me to go to the hospital at Delevout the month of October, 1897. My condition was desperate, and as I was both making any progress toward recovery. I may frankly asy that I gave my case up as houeless. Believing that I could not recover, I asked to be taken home. I then tried various treatment without help, and I was doubled up like a tack-knife. At this stage I was advised to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills, and sent for half a dozen boxes. After using the first half dozen my appetite returned and night sweats, which had been the bane of my sleeping hours, deserted me. Knowing that the pills were helping me I sent for a further supply. Meantime a swelling came in my hip which finally broke, and from that on my presers was more rapid and I am again as soona'd as ever, and able to do a day's work with any one. I can only add that Dr. Williams Pink Pills brought me to my present state of good the grave. Pills brought me to my present state of good health, and so long as I live I shall praise the remedy that brought me back from the verge of the grave."

"THE FRASER," PORT STANLEY, ONTARIO.

(ESTABLISHED 27 YEARS.)

WAS built in 1870, and is now open for the wasson. People who have heretofore gone to the expense and inconvenience of long and wearisoms trips to the seaside, and other distant summer resorts, are gradually awakening to the fact that they have near their own doors one of the prettiest spots on the continent, where they can obtain all the advantages of a summer outing — lovely climate, bathing, beating and sailing — without the discomforts of railway travel. The Fraser House is situated most pleasantly upon the lofty hill overlooking Lake Erie from a height of 150 feet, and commanding a magnificent view of the beautiful scenery surrounding it on every side. The handsome dining room of "The Fraser" has a seating capacity for 200 guests. The proprietor recently erected an addition to the House, which will increase the accommodation by ten rooms. The bar-room has been removed from the hotel, and a barber shop and other accessories have been provided. Three Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway trains leave the Port delly, connecting at London and at 8t. Thomas, running east, west and north to all important points.

The Original London Harpers (Tony Cortees) will be at "The Fraser" during July and August,

We were questioned a few weeks ago as to the advisability of establishing another Catholic organization. Our to the control was too many opinion is that we have too many societies for our adult population.

They all have their aims and remedies for special needs, but, judging them by their work, we are inclined, to believe that many become members simply for selfish purpose or to have the privil has p ege of being called by some highsounding name and of being robed in gorgeous regalia. Too many ous r societies tend to break up homelife. We do not imagine that he m a husband should be everlastingly the attending meetings of committees, etc. when Again a multiplicity of societies pre- of th vents us from concentrating our forces polit and renders us comparatively use less as a social or political force. They less as a social or political force. They that are fruitful breeders of cliques and with factions and we have more than once observed that those who are loud in their exhortations of brotherly love are the ones who impede the advancement of a brother Catholic. "By their fruits rece ye shall know them."

We have societies enough, and to ton spare. One good benefit organization by that is on a higher plane than the edit ordinary insurance company, a temper | ant ance society, and one adapted to the He needs of the juveniles, should afford wor ample scope to our zeal and satisfy our the desire to promote Catholic interests.

AFTER THE WAR.

The advocates of expansion, etc., are less enthusiastic just now in commendation of the McKinley policy. The prowess of the American soldier in the far East is based largely on the we luxuriant imagination of the scribe tha who furnishes the populace with bes accounts of sanguinary encounters and dis glorious victories. That the "boys in the blue" have done their share for of t Humanity's cause is undeniable, but not that the campaign has been a success per either in quelling the disturbing elements or in adding anything to Uncle to Sam's domains is as untrue as the cou manufactured reports sent from Man- say

Oils, who told the natives to get into if the bush and to wait until they were in sent for, begs for volunteers to crush so those whom he esteemed so lightly. Earnest and intelligent men who did by what was in them to hold back the W "Man of Destiny" from a policy that w was as antagonistic to justice as it was | c subversive of the principles of the n American Constitution, see the fulfil ment of their prophecies. The commercial nabobs who hurled the country | into war, with the view of making the th Philippines a battening ground for counter-jumpers, view the situation without alarm : but they who pay the taxes, and know that many a gallant young heart will bend and break under the strain, are convinced that Government by the people and forthe people has its disadvantages. They can learn a little yet from the effete monarchies of Europe. The Philippines seems destined for some years to be an American graveyard. It is rather costly to have one so far from home, but, like the afflicted baby who cried for Castoria, they "were not happy until they got

When we read that General Brooke has declared authoritatively that crime and bloodshed are, considering the disturbed state of the country, com. paratively unknown, and when we are told by reliable witnesses that the average Philippino is in no need of the blessings of Anglo-Saxon civilization, we are at a loss to account for the misrepresentation and calumny that have been circulated by some secular and so-called religious newspapers.

A military gentleman, as quoted by the Standard and Times, says that it is all nonsense to believe the yarns told about the ignorance of the Philippinos. In the isle of Panuay the percentage of men, women and children who can read and write is greater than in the city of Boston. A minister of the Church of England holds the opinion that the Augustinian friars have done more solid work in lifting up the native in the scale of civilization than ha been accomplished by all the sect working in China and Japan.

children of Perth. He earnestly requested the children to take advantage of the great opportunities offered in this direction, and sailed upon the parents to assist the Sisters in their good work. The various committees connected with the Church, the sitar boys, the choir, the Children of Mary, and the Altar Society, were each in turn thanked for the assistance they had given him the congregation for the hearty occopiest his pastorate, and always given him tuthers he might be blaced, he hearty occopiest his pastorate, and said that no matter emember the congregation of Perth for their apontaneous co-operation and their soudfast and zealous practice of their holy religion. He bespoke for his successor a continuance of that support which was or a continuance of that support which was or a continuance of that support which was not seemal between pastor and people. He then requested the congregation to kneel down, when he asked Almighty God to bless them and their families, after which he gave them his blessing, and, as he turned towards the altar, he closed an address, which was throughout a masterpiece, by the simple yet touching word. Father Duffus was also waited upon by the altar boys and presented him with a beautiful cut glass fruit dish, set in silver; by the children of Mary, who presented him with an elaborate silk umbrella and cane combined, which was suitably engraved; while the Altar Society presented him with a magnificent furined, beaver-trimmed cloak. In each case suitable addresses were read and replies made. On Tuesday the reverent Father took the boat at Oliver's ferry for his new parish, and he was escorted thirther by a vast concourse of his congregation and the people of Perth in general.

DIOCESE OF LONDON.

The Hamilton Times of the 27th wit, had the following kindly reference to the Bishop elect of London, Right Rev, Mer. McEvay:
Having been informed by the Times that of the three names submitted to the Pope as those of men worthy to be made Bishop of London, Rev. Mgr. McEvay, Vicar-General, of this city, was ranked as most worthy, it will surprise nobody to learn that his appointment to that high effice is officially announced to-day in the CATHOLIC RECORD. The Roman Bull making the appointment has been received and arrangements will be made for his consecration, at an early date, in London.

No clergyman who has ever labored in this part of the country is more worthy of promotion and high honors than Mgr. McEvay. The Bishop-elect of London is a Canadian. He was born near Lindsay in 1851, and is therefore now in his forty-sixth year. He received his classical education in St. Michael's College, Toronto, and graduated with honors in the University of Toronto. He afterwards studied theology in the Grand Seminary in Montreal, and in 1882 was ordained a priest by the late Archbishop Cleary, in Trenton. In addition to his thorough classical and theological training Mgr. McEvay had in early manhood received a most thorough, practical business education.

His first duties as priest were performed in Klingston. When the diocese at Peterborough was established he was transferred there and was placed in charge of the missiens of Bobcaygeon. Galway and Feneion Falls. When Hishop Dowling, succeeded the late Bishop Jamot in Peterborough in 1857 Father McEvay was transferred to Peterborough and appointed rector of St. Peter's cathedral. It was mainly through his zeal and energy, under Bishop Dowling, that the property for St. Joseph's Hospittal at Peterborough and appointed rection of the new hospital on the grounds that had been procured. One story of the building was completed when he was transferred to Hamilton.

It is career here is pretty well known. It has been one of hard work, zeal and energy, acco of your old parishioners.

Signed on behalf of the Congregation of St.

John the Baptist, Perth.

Separate schools was also largely due to his zeal.

As a priest he was firm but gentle, and the same fine qualities were seen in all his doings. He enjoyed the utmost confidence of his Bishop and the love and respect of every priest and all the people of the diocese.

Bishop-elect Mckvay will not be missed more as a press than as a citzen. For about ten years he has been a broad-minded, progressive Hamiltonian, and this city is now and ever will be the better for having numbered him among its citizens.

In wishing him success and happiness in his new and exalted position the Times but echoes the sentiment of every citizen, regardless of creed or denomination. Pretersion is always intolerable, for it be-trays littleness where it would assume great ness.
