samed yesterday morning was that of Collistro. Mr. MacNeill, for the defence, requested the court to grant an adjournment to Thursday, it having developed that further witnesses who could not be secured up to the present would be necessary to complete the defence. He desired also to direct the attention of by the court to certain articles appearing in the Miner newspaper which he contended were of a nature that left editor of the newspaper in question open-to proceedings for contempt. Mr. Mac-Neill stated however that he did not put this matter in the form of a motion for this matter in the form of a motion for proceedings. The magistrate remarked that he had not read the issue of the Miner under discussion, which, of course, disposed of Mr. MacNeill's contention that the paragraphs complained of could have any effect on the court, even if the particular matter had been sub judice as alleged. The adjustment was granted. that the paragraphs complained of could have any effect on the court, even if the particular matter had been sub judice as alleged. The adjournment was granted.

Beamsh was then arranged on one of the charges made against him. He appeared in person to conduct his defence and requested an adjournment to Thursday, informing the court that he would require a considerable number of witnesses and needed time to look them up. Values were found in the gravel but not sumcient to pay. Further north the formation changes to granite and slates, but Mr. Inkster only reached the point where the formations came into contact.

Several of the reports which reache Mr. Inkster's ears in the great north country are of an interesting nature. He heard through some Indians that afternoon a summons was served on Thomas M. Beamish to appear at the police court to answer to the charge of assault. The facts in connection with this matter are practically the same as in the Coligina matter as set fouth in the in the Colistro matter, as set forth in the affidavit made by Joseph Horn and reproduced in the Miner. Beamish was one of those who followed Horn down town, and the fact that he had in his possession at the time a stout cudgel made utensils of the same metal. VANCOUVER, Aug. 10.—A large part of the business section of Armstrong, B. C., was burned today. The total loss B. C., was burned today. The total loss is $90,000 and the insurance $23,000. The origin of the fire was incendiary, a half-witted man named Eagles having started the blaze with the aid of coal oil. Eagles confessed his guilt, was arrested and is now in jail. The stores burned were those of Wood, Cargill & Co., general merchandise, where the fire started; Hardy, Wright & Co., general store; Burns & Burns, druggists; Francis implement store, three warehouses, several small shops, the Masonic temple, Odd Fellows' hall and three dwellings. Littue stock was saved, so rapidly did the fire burn. The burned out merchants gathered the remnant of their stocks and resumed business this evening in tents and hastily built shacks.
