MEETINGS OF THE CITIZENS.
Had we a handseme Theatre, we might be favored some day with a visit from the incomparable Songstress, Jenny Lind, and we would have some additional attraction for our American friends during the travelling scason. We have no Concert Room, no properly constructed Lecture Room, nothing in the shape of a decent Ball Room—and last, not least, (there are stirring times ahead.) we require a comfortable place to resort to, where we can sit down and calmly listen to the story to be told to us by the future Representatives of our improving—City. Had we a Theatre, we would be prepared for all such emergencies. At a moderate cost, a temporary floor could be laid, in a very short time, connecting the base of the lower Boxes' with the Stage, thereby giving ample space for "the merry dance," or a public meeting of Citizens. We are 50 years behind further particulars made known, on application to JOHN G. DINNING,
