IS LIFE WORTH LIVING.

(By Dr. Robert Bridges, Poet Laureate.)

'Is life worth living? Yes, so long As there is wrong to right, Wait of the weak against the strong Or tyranny to fight; Long as there lingers gloom to chase Or streaming tear to dry, One kindred woe, one sorrowing face That smiles as we draw nigh; Long as a tale of anguish swells The heart, and lids grow wet, And at the sound of Christmas bells We pardon and forget, So long as Faith and Freedom reigns And loyal Hope survives, And gracious charity remains; To heaven lowly lies; While there is untried tract For intellect or will, And men are free to think and act, Life is worth living still.
